mal'ak “messenger, angel.” A deputy commissioned to discharge a certain duty for the principal whom he represents. As the most usual task is that of bearing messages, commands, or tidings, he is commonly called a “messenger” ἄγγελος angelos). The word is therefore a term of office, and does not further distinguish the office-bearer than as an intelligent being.

1. The nature of angels is spiritual Heb 1:14. This characteristic ranges over the whole chain of spiritual being from man up to God himself. The extreme links, however, are excluded: man, because he is a special class of intelligent creatures; and God, because he is supreme. They were all of course originally good; but some of them have fallen from holiness, and become evil spirits or devils Mat 25:31, Mat 25:41; Jud 1:6; Rev 12:7. The latter are circumscribed in their sphere of action, as if confined within the walls of their prison, in consequence of their fallen state and malignant disposition Gen 3; Job 1:2; 1Pe 2:4; Rev 20:2. Being spiritual, they are not only moral, but intelligent. They also excel in strength Psa 103:20. The holy angels have the full range of action for which their qualities are adapted. They can assume a real form, expressive of their present functions, and affecting the senses of sight, hearing, and touch, or the roots of those senses in the soul. They may even perform innocent functions of a human body, such as eating Gen 18:8; Gen 19:3. Being spirits, they can resolve the material food into its original elements in a way which we need not attempt to conceive or describe. But this case of eating stands altogether alone. Angels have no distinction of sex Mat 22:30. They do not grow old or die. They are not a race, and have not a body in the ordinary sense of the term.
2. Their office is expressed by their name. In common with other intelligent creatures, they take part in the worship of God Rev 7:11; but their special office is to execute the commands of God in the natural world Psa 103:20, and especially to minister to the heirs of salvation Heb 1:14; Mat 18:10; Luk 15:10; Luk 16:22.
3. The angel of Jehovah – for the Lord God says of the angel, “Beware of him, and obey his voice; provoke him not, for he will not pardon your transgressions; for my name is in his inmost” Exo 23:21; that is, my nature is in his essence. (Gen 16:7, Gen 16:13; Gen 22:11-12; Gen 31:11, Gen 31:13; Gen 48:15-16; Exo 3:2-15; Exo 23:20-23; with Exo 33:14-15). This indicates the (messenger) angel has no power or authority of office of his own (as would God, the Father, The Word, or the Holy Spirit, Who could make judgments and change whatever orders are at hand), rather, the angel MUST carry forth only that for which he was sent with the exactness of his angelic “office.”

(The above taken from Albert Barnes Notes of the Bible)

4. Angels have the power to “bless and curse” – Exodus 23:20-24; Judges 5:23
5. Angels fight for us against our enemies – Exodus 33:2; Isaiah 37:6
6. Angels have swords – Numbers 22:31, 1 Chronicles 21:15-16, 27,30 (70,000 men died)
7. Angels can bless the barren with power to conceive (Demons, if a person’s will is surrendered, may also bring a curse of barrenness. – Judges 13:3; Luke 1:11,13
8. The Angel of the Lord encamps (puts a guard around) round about those that fear him. Psalms 34:7
9. The Angel of the Lord will chase our enemies and persecute them. – Psalm 35:5-6
10. The Angel of the Lord’s presence with the three Hebrews in the fire delivered them from their bonds, and preserved them from harm. – Daniel 3:28
11. The angel of the Lord shut the mouths of lions for Daniel. – Daniel 6:22
12. The angel of Glory, spoke in the name of the Lord of hosts (Jehovah Tsaba) to Zechariah. – Zechariah 1:9-2:13
13. Zechariah 3:1-5 – After Moses died, God sent the angel, Michael to arrest Satan in his resistance for Moses to be resurrected, and clothed with immortality and taken to heaven. See also – Jude vs.9
14. The Angel of the Lord appears in a dream and warns and gives direction. – Matthew 1:20; 2:13,19
15. Angels bring good tidings of things to come – Luke 1:11-19, 26-35
16. The Angel of the Lord appears in the New Testament after Jesus (the Word made flesh) had come into the Earth. – Luke 2:9-13; Acts 8:26; Acts 12:7; Acts 27:23;
17. Angels can and may physically strengthen. – Luke 22:43; 10:19; 1Kings 19:5-8
18. Angels may deliver from physical bonds or blind eyes from seeing secret things – Acts 5:19; 12:7-11
19. Angels may smite with disease (including taking down leaders of nations) Acts 12:23
20. Angels may prepare a way for deliverance assuring of complete success. – Paul’s shipwreck – Acts 27:23
21. Angelic appearances may also be Satan transforming himself into such. – 2Corinthian 11:14
22. Angels will not speak any contradiction of God’s Word. – Galatians 1:8
23. Angels are also sent by the Lord Jesus, and may speak in His Name, saying, “I AM as it refers to a characteristic of Jesus. – Revelation 1:1

Dr. Don G. Pickney Prayer/Prophecy

May 31, 2012

Father, we thank you. We're so blessed, Father, because we have the Holy Ghost. We're so blessed because we have the anointing of the Lord upon us, the Spirit of the Lord God upon us. We're so blessed because we have insight into Your word. We're so blessed because of revelation of the Spirit, that You're giving us wisdom and understanding to see the mysteries, to see into the mysteries and understand them, the way science looks into the mysteries of the natural laws and comes to understand.

We're looking into the realm of the spiritual and we're seeing wonderful things. And You're giving us wisdom and understanding into the realm of the power of the Spirit. That somewhere in all of this, somewhere in all of this there is an atomic cellular division available to us that will cause an explosion of the works of God to be manifested in the body of Christ. So that all over the world the body of Christ will be manifesting these mighty works in their lives. And we're in the laboratory tonight and we've got the microscope and we're looking at these spiritual things and You're magnifying them to us and You're giving us the ability to have insights and see into these things to know and understand them. And everything that You have shown us and everything that we've said tonight and all these things that we have looked at tonight we can see, we can see clearly that we're looking at what produces of the mighty works of God what produces the miracle power. Because every time they are enacted, every time they're put into action, every time miracle power explodes, miracle power works. The understanding of this, the anointing of this, the flowing of this anointing in and among us is what stands between people suffering and their comfort. The ability to set multitudes of captives free, to walk individually, interact with people and see miracle working power or in mass as it was with Peter and as it was with Jesus on that occasion, to see people in mass.

Now, Father, we bless You for Your word. We hold Your word precious. We hold this truth precious in our hearts. We hold it dear to us, we hold it like a precious prize that we have brought into our arms and hold it carefully within us because we know that we're tapping into, we know that seeing into. That is as You show us clearly that we've got it, we have come to the answer. Now You are working with us, and by the power of Your Spirit, and through our courage and the ability to not be afraid, we are looking at the answer for multitudes of humanity.

You are not giving this anointing out to people with titles, people with influence. No one has to know who I am for me to have this kind of power in my hands -- that it doesn't come by association being in the right organization with the right name but just seeing truth because we're already equipped with the power. We're already equipped with the power of the Holy Ghost. We're already equipped we just need, Father, to know how to release it, how to initiate this mighty power that we've been baptized with, how to activate it's flow from us into the lives of other people that power which we have which we possess through the baptism of the Holy Spirit, immersion into Your power by the Holy Spirit.

We thank You for the ability we have, we thank You for the dynamic power (the dunamis, the dynamite explosive power) that indwells us, that saturates us, that is waiting to be implemented through these spiritual principles.

And, Father, through the eye of my faith I see great celebration that as these things begin to be manifested this year, year of manifestation, that we won't have to tell people the glory of God has come on us they'll experience and know the glory has come on us because of what we're walking in, what we're releasing to the body of Christ. And somehow, Father, You have it purposed and planned for the glory of God to come on us in harmony with the glory of the world coming to us setting us free to go and do and take Your glory to the world. As You have said to us, I will give you the glory of the world to enable you to take My glory to the world. And though our message of this great Jehovah Tsaba event is to the body of Christ, the message includes that You have long patience for the precious fruit of the earth, and You are going to utilize our new found ability with glory, with the influence of this world to be able to go to the world with Your glory.

Nations... it's easy says the Lord, for Me to touch a nation as it is a person with My power. My servant Elisha changed a village with the salt that he put in their water. That is not the limit of My power, saith God; for I could send you with the answer for a whole nation, the dynamics of deliverance for crisis in a whole nation. And you could speak in My name and change a whole nation and oh how My glory would spread throughout the earth, saith God. I will be with you one on one. And I will move with My power through you just with that single person, that individual that you are encountering even as I did the lady at the well, when I interacted with her individually. But I will use you, saith the Lord, because the time is short and I will cause My glory to flow and to come upon you and to flow through My people, to do greater things than have ever been known.

So that mark My words, saith the Lord, that there will be entire nations who will be instantly and completely and totally delivered of crisis because of My sent one who goes for My power knows no limit, for My power knows no limit, says the Lord.

Imagine, saith God, put this in your heart, imagine some pandemic, worldwide pandemic, occurring and I give you the answer and you speak it and though the news media might not pick up on you instantly it wouldn't be long as through the social media people begin to share their testimony as they acted on it what happened. And before long you would be brought before presidents and kings and nations. And the whole world reaching out acting upon one single instruction and I could stop a pandemic in the world and it would not stretch My ability in the least, saith the Lord.

There are things that I have planned (in order) to bring in this harvest that no devil, no satanic ploy could compete with. That I have the ability to turn the hearts of men that are so hardened for I spoke of it in the day of the visitation of the Spirit of Elijah that I would take hardened, crusty hearts of the fathers and I would melt them and make them like children, cause them to be soft. I have the ability to transform man when they see My love in motion, saith the Lord. And I can love a person, or I can love a city, or I can love a nation, or I could love the whole world in a moment of crisis and they would see My love. And no other god before Me, and no other religion outside of Me could compete with Me, and I can bring in the masses of the people of this world by showing them My love and My mercy through these great and mighty things, saith the Lord.

That is My plan, that is the purpose of this blessing of the Day of Jehovah Tsaba to you, says the Lord, to equip you, to raise you in influence and to make you a blessing to many nations. And I will have My way, says the Lord. I will have My way, that which I have purposed it will come to pass, saith God. And no one can stay My hand, and no one can challenge that which I am doing, says the Lord. So rejoice, celebrate with Me.

Catch the vision, put it in your heart, nurture it, protect it, guard over it. Allow it to produce the expectancy in you, says the Lord, of that which I planned. Because it's all about My love for this world and it's all about My love for humanity, says the Lord. I live in My purpose, I live to see the fulfillment of My desire in this world receiving My love.

I have planned for things in the future, says the Lord, but those things which I have planned for this season you will see the lover in Me come out, saith God. People will develop terms concerning Me and they will say He is a real lover isn't He! He's a real lover of humanity! Without question they will see it through My glory as it is manifested throughout this world, saith God.

Hallelujah. Amen. Praise God. Amen. Amen. Amen. Amen. Amen. Praise the Lord. Praise God. Amen. Hallelujah. Praise God. Praise God. Praise God. Praise God. So we continue to explore, so we continue to explore. God bless you. Thank you for coming letting us share with you tonight.

Prayer & Praise & Prophetic Declaration – End of Teaching – December 12, 2013

Glory to Jesus. Amen. This is the Day of Jehovah Tsaba. It is the generation of the noon day sun. It is the generation of the upright. Amen. Praise God. Hallelujah. Glory to God. Thank You, Father. Praise God. Praise God. Praise God. Glory. Glory. Glory. We bless, You, Lord. Take a moment and praise God that you're in this generation. You're a chosen generation. You're a generation with a destiny to be fulfilled. Hallelujah. Father, we thank You – we thank You that we are the generation of this great revelation of the Day of Jehovah Tsaba.

We are the priests of the Lord, the ministers of our God. We are not struggling and striving to attain to it. We ARE named the priests of the Lord, we ARE called the ministers of our God. We WILL consume the riches of the Gentile world and in their glory we will boast ourselves. Hallelujah. Hallelujah. Praise God. Praise God. Praise God. Praise God. Praise God. Praise God. Hallelujah. Hallelujah. Hallelujah. Thank You, Jesus. Thank You, Jesus. Thank You, Lord. Thank You, Lord.

Wealth and riches will be in our house and our righteousness will endure forever. The desire of the wicked will melt away. They will gnash their teeth and watch their desire melt away as You reach out and You plunder them to bring to us Your desired blessing for this generation. We thank You for it. Praise You for it. Hallelujah. Hallelujah. Hallelujah. Bless the Lord.

We're the generation with the anointing to receive it. We're the generation who have been given the destiny. You have caused Your anointing to come upon this generation. We're taking that anointing. We're taking that anointing, taking that anointing. Hallelujah. Our whole spirit and soul and body, our whole spirit, and soul and body anointed with a special preservation... preserved flawlessly to the coming of the Lord Jesus, to the coming of the Lord Jesus – the generation that will see the fulfillment of the coming of the Lord.

And, Father, we thank You tonight for it. We're celebrating with You this great event. We're celebrating with You the fulfillment of Your long patience for it. We're celebrating.

Our vision merges with Your vision. The horizon of what we see melts into the very horizon of what is Your fulfillment, what is Your long patience for. We WILL be a part of the most exciting move and event that will encompass the whole globe, the whole world. And this world has NEVER seen anything like what this will be, never seen anything like this ever.

No move of the Spirit, no revival will be comparable to what they are going to see...they will see such glory upon us. They will recognize that we carry with us the splendor, the glory of this world will be handed to us. And they will see Your Shekinah upon us...we will shine and sparkle with the very physical presence of Jehovah upon us as we go forth. Everywhere we go it will be recognized. There will be no veil, there will be no hiding what the Body of Christ has suddenly risen up and become. There will be no way they can turn their head away and not look at us because everywhere they go they will see US...everywhere they go, every nation they go to, every place they turn there will be one of us. We will have the richest of the Gentile world and we will carry the glory, and power and splendor of the Almighty God.

No river will stand in our way, no mountain will stand in our way, no nation or government, no institution can stand in our way. Because our influence will supersede their influence and You will cause them to bow their knee before us and confess that God is in us of a truth. And as You said with Joshua, no man will be able to stand before you to resist you all the days of your life. As I was with Moses so I will be with you. You said in Hebrews, as it is written as he said, God is our helper, the Lord is with us, who can be against us, who can stand against us. The Lord is my helper I will not fear what man can do to me. The boast of the righteous of this generation as they carry forth their destiny to be fulfilled and bring to a climax the end of this age and the coming of the Lord.

Oh, Father, that You have called us into the last generation. That You have called unto the generation of the end times. What a privilege, what a blessing, what an honor to serve You during this time. Father, that You would remove from the vision and the hearts of the believers of this generation of any option except living out their days until the coming of the Lord. That nothing shall by any means hurt them, they have been given power over serpents and scorpions and over all the power of the enemy and nothing by any means shall hurt them. No attack of the enemy, no man will be able to stand before us and will be greater than that which is our destiny upon us.

That as surely as we breathe, in the same way You give us our breath, that You have given us the fulfillment of this great destined event. And as surely as tomorrow the sun rises and sets again, as surely as the universe is held in its place, even more surely than that we will see fulfilled this great end time blessing. As it touches our lips and we speak not our words but Your words the Day of the Lord of Hosts, the Day of Jehovah Tsaba. We speak with holy breath, we speak holy words, we speak prophetic fulfillment. We speak Your words. And when we speak Your words, Your angelic hosts stir. When we speak forth the prophetic fulfillment of Your word, the angels of God are energized with the power as they hear us speak it, You said to the intent that the principalities and powers and heavenly places will come to know by the Church the manifold wisdom of God.

Literally, as we speak forth this prophetic word...the angelic armies and messengers of heaven begin to rejoice and celebrate and move and stir. And somewhere out there in the realm of the Spirit is a great leader, a great captain, the Angel of Glory, who spoke to Zechariah and said, thus saith Jehovah Tsaba, after the glory has He sent me unto the nations which plundered you. For behold I will shake my hand upon them and they will become a plunder and you will know that Jehovah Tsaba has sent me for you. Oh, Angel of Glory, we know you are out there working for us on our behalf. You are a Spirit of fire, you are divine energy who carries with you the assignment from the throne of God. To go and gather the glory of the world and bring it to my gates...bring it to our gates...to load it in ships and containers and every feasible burden-bearing labor to bring goods – to bring it to our gates.

And, Father, we do not measure the fulfillment of this by us. I do not stand here tonight and look at me and measure the greatness of this event even to measure it by my gates.

Huh! You're going to have to give me bigger gates than this. I mean, Father, this little cul-de-sac would not hold all the eighteen wheelers and armored cars and shipping containers as it comes in even the port of Los Angeles. Why we had trouble, Father, a few years ago, with just the number of cars we were parking in the cul-de-sac. The home owners association contacted us and said what are you doing there, what have you got going, when we told them they said how long is that going to go on? We said, forever. And apparently they said, OK, because we never heard from them again.

So, Father, we don't measure the fulfillment of this event, just as the measure of the fullness of the Day of Pentecost was not measured by that group of 120 that were there. The next day 4,000 were saved and then 5,000 were saved and then according to the Sanhedrin they filled the entire region with their doctrine. They said the whole city, you have turned our city upside down. Who would have thought it! Who would have thought that little group of people. And so, Father, we rejoice in this, we celebrate it with full authority and full confidence and with complete integrity that we are the generation of the end and all will be fulfilled and all that the prophets have spoken will be fulfilled upon this generation.

And this wonderful event will be the catalyst through which the final event of time, the final event will occur and this gospel will be preached to all of the world. What is our church going to look like prophetically when this comes in? What will it look like? How many towers of offices will it take for the secretarial concierges who will help to distribute materials and supplies to the people who go? What will we be like? Man has never seen what we'll be like because we will be equipped to fulfill the greatest thing that You've done since You created Adam on the earth.

Oh, Father, sometimes while we're in our upper room here, and we peer out and we see the visions of other ministries and other churches. We see them prospering in that which is their vision and we think, "Oh, God are we being left out? God why can't we leave this calling, why can't we leave this assignment and go out there and do what other people are doing?" But whatever they're doing does not fulfill the vision... that of the greatest thing God has ever done since He created Adam on the earth.

For many of those here tonight prophetically as we reach into the see that prophetically if they could see and know the power and influence, the dynamics of what their life is going to be in short order. It would amaze them, it would transfix them, it would astound them to the idea that they would be involved in something as great as what You're going to do through them.

Father, we thank You for it. Huh! This is not our quest, we're not struggling for this...this is a piece of cake for us. It's just a joy for us. No burden on us to fulfill this because it's not ours to fulfill. We have the joy of waiting on You, Lord, to see Your great event come to pass. We thank You for it.

Oh Saith the Lord, it's a time when – as it were, a vacuum will be created. Sick people will just walk through that vacuum and healing will come. And somewhere out there under the sound of my voice here or out there on the web, You will lead them to go somewhere and just like You did with Abraham when You took him up on the mountain, and you'll say to them mark off this spot and tell the people that everyone who moves through this, their diseases will leave them, their infirmities will depart, their crippling disabilities will be made whole again. The blind will receive their sight even as You did with Peter when You said to him, mark off a spot here, mark off this street, let's just call this Healing Avenue! Let's just mark this off and call it Healing Avenue, and just tell anybody that's got any kind of sickness... just come on through. And entire areas of cities will have healing vacuums, says the Lord, because My servants will decree it and declare it. They will stand up and they will mark it off even as Peter did and they'll say, this is it come on through and be healed. And multitudes of people will make their way through it. Some won't even know it's a healing vacuum. They'll come in there and suddenly be healed. The world will never have seen anything, says the Lord, like what I am going to do in this event. Nothing like this before, to reach every nation and every tongue and every kindred is like what I'm about to do, says the Lord. Hallelujah. Praise God. Amen. That's the word of the Lord.

Father, we bless You tonight. We are preaching that of which we know not. We are prophesying that of which we have no place to reach to even compare it. How can we give examples of that which is greater than anything You've done in our history, either of our church or Your people Israel or humanity in the past? We are proclaiming and we are prophesying and we're declaring an event of which we know not, the greatness of it, the height of it. Because of the glory that You are going, the excellence and glory and splendor of Yourself that You are going to display and demonstrate for us. How blessed we are, Father, to be at the right place at the right time in the church at the end of this age to see what You are going to do. We praise You for it. We thank You for it. Blessed be the name of the Lord. Glory be to God. Glory be to God. Glory be to God. Glory be to God. Hallelujah. Hallelujah. Hallelujah. Hallelujah. Praise the name of Jesus. Praise God. Praise God. Praise God. Praise God. Praise God.

Well, says the Lord, you've proven yourself. You've proven your inability to walk without any struggles. You've proven in your own efforts, in your own faith efforts, and in your own will efforts, you have proven the inability while reaching for My ability do not be dismayed, says the Lord, and do not be discouraged because I have put your inability on display for a season. Remember, says the Lord, that before that great moment of victory for Israel when they spoiled the Egyptians, remember the days that preceded it. Where the toil was increased literally, says God, their inability in themselves was displayed and put as it were on a stage of history. To show the utter incapableness for sustained victory for them and it was manifested for you to see as you look back at their historical event, and you see them murmuring and complaining and you see the reason why they are is because the stroke of the Egyptians was causing them to suffer insurmountably before this great event happened. But it ended, says the Lord, that day when they spoiled the Egyptians, plundered the Egyptians and walked out of there and there wasn't one feeble person among their tribes. And I gave them their hearts desires as I said, through my psalmist I gave them their hearts desires---that great season, that great day, that great time. And oh yeh it's been, says the Lord, as if your inability, your lack, your incapableness, it's almost seems to you as if it has been on display in many situations, in many cases. And you've reached out even to help others and you saw, you reached out to help them looking for and longing for the glory of God to flow out and do glorious things in those around you. And you have seen yourself come short of the glory in those situations. That's what's on display, says the Lord, and even as I did with Israel when My glory manifests upon the church, manifests upon My people that I am getting ready and prepared to do, says the Lord. And when the glory of all the nations of the world is brought to you and laid at your feet, says the Lord, then I alone will be glorified in the earth. No man will be able to stand up in this day and say I had the answer, I found the secret of the Spirit, I found the magic bullet of spiritual things that catapulted me into this glorious, spiritual ability that I have and place that God has put me. Because even as it was in Solomon's day, it'll be said of you that God enlarged your heart. As it's been spoken by Isaiah the prophet when I said and you'll begin to sparkle be cheerful like the sheen of a running stream and your heart shall stand in awe and be enlarged, because the rich sea trade and the wealth of nations will be converted unto you. Though riches and wealth the forces of the nations will come to you, and when it's done, says the Lord, you will stand in awe of Me and my glory, saith God. For I will do that in this earth for My people that which only I can do. And all of the earth even those outside, even the rebellious, even the stubborn, even the wicked Gentile world will look upon you and say, surely this is the people which God has blessed. When no man will stand and wonder, how has this occurred? The answer on the lips of all the nations of the world will be --- this is something that God has done. And I alone, says the Lord, will be glorified because the glory of My splendor in the earth will be that which I alone could do. That which you see and you hear in these days that are ahead of you as the symptoms begin to occur and you begin to hear of these things, hear one over here and one over there, something else over here a wave of wealth hits these people over here and a revival of miracles and signs and wonders breaks out over here. Another over here and something else news worthy happens over here and you begin to hear about it. When you turn on your news and you hear that one of the poorest nations in the world has discovered the richest, the richest of all the earth in their little poverty stricken country, and when the news comes forth and you learn that the person that is instrumental in all of this is a believer and giving God the praise. Who was in poverty and struggling in the poorest of villages the poorest of nations, and now they're set among princes and kings and they praise and extol and give glory to God who has blessed them. When you begin to hear of these symptoms, says the Lord, it will come, it'll be like a flood. It'll be like a rise of water that begins to build until it's obvious that there is going to be that thing that suddenly bursts the gates of the dam and the flood of My glory and My power and My splendor in the earth will cover the earth through My people and My church, says the Lord. All because, saith God, I made My vow, I swore My oath, saith Almighty God, when I said for as truly as I live, saith Jehovah, all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the Lord. And you will see it, says the Lord. You will see it in your day and you will see it in this generation as it comes to pass before your eyes. Celebrate with Me. Rejoice with Me for My long patience for this time, saith God. Because I'm about to start My celebration with you, saith God, saith the Lord. It is My saying, saith God, that you ain't never seen nothin' like this before. Praise God. Hallelujah. Thank You, Jesus. Amen. Praise the Lord. Glory, glory, glory. Hallelujah. Hallelujah. Hallelujah. Amen. Amen. Amen. Praise God. Praise God. Praise God.. Amen.

Prophetic Word

Stand together with me. Hallelujah, Glory to Jesus, Praise God, Praise God, Praise God.
Hallelujah!

Thus saith the Lord, and you will trade your slavery, you will trade your slavery for authority. You will trade your slavery for influence. You will trade your slavery for ability in the earth. You will trade your slavery for a new place. You will trade your slavery for a new life. You will trade your slavery for a new lifestyle of ability in the earth.

No longer will you say... all my need is supplied, rather you will say... all my need is supplied according to His riches in glory. No longer will you see lack and want; but you will live in abundance to fulfill the caverns that I will open up of your heart, and cause to flow out of you the dreams and the visions.

I will cause you to take on the character of My nature, says the Lord as Creator. And every thought you have will be creative in its nature. You will not grope as those do in the darkness searching and looking, for that is how the supernatural and miraculous will break forth. And that is how the immense wealth and prosperity will break forth.

For I will cause to come forth out of My people – the creative nature. For imbedded in that seed, is My very nature, creative in its origin. For imbedded within the seed that produced your new birth that caused you to be born of me, is My very nature as creator. And you will not struggle to find the words and the thoughts and the intents that need to come forth for the greater miraculous that I will do, says the Lord. And you will flow in My supernatural ability and power in the earth. You will be equipped in every arena with ability in this earth. Your ability in the natural will be the gold and silver, it will be the goods. The wealth that I will bring to you will give you ability and influence in the earth.

In the economic, and in the social realms, you will be unlike any people, unlike any breed of people, any class of people. And I have said, you will be called a new breed. They will call you “sought out,” yes “sought out.” They will call you the blessed of the Lord and the Gentiles will say of your seed, this is the seed which the Lord has blessed. And the wicked will gnash their teeth and burn away as it were in frustration, the terror that will come upon them will be because of My great, great, great blessing that’ll be yours, says the Lord.

Yet a little while I said, and I spoke it, says the Lord, and I said to you to be patient until the coming of the Lord draws near. I said to you, remember I told you at the time I said to be patient, until the end of the age. For while the wicked were hoarding up and storing up the wealth of the world, you were under their control and you were laboring and you were gathering wages that were fraudulent. And I urged you to be patient and I said to you, remember the patience of Job. And at the end of the Lord, then end of the Lord is very very good. I said to you in My Word to be patient. I also said to you, says the Lord, that I the Lord was having long patience waiting for My goods, waiting to take and spoil the nations and take back My goods. I said that I had long patience waiting for the precious fruit of My harvest.

So together, says the Lord, we have stood and we have used that force that emanates from Me that is your called patience. And you have been steadfast, and you have waited, and NOW, says the Lord, you will see the "end of the Lord." And you have walked in it, but you'll see the end of it. And the end of this cycle, the end of this thing will be the most glorious thing that the world has ever seen since the creation of mankind. And when I spoke of My Church being a glorious Church, you yet have not conceived in its totality just how glorious My Church will be at the very end of this age, says the Lord.

For I will cause My glory to so fill My people, the glory of the Lord upon you will cause the wealth of this world to come to you! And you will see My glory manifested with your own eyes. You will not see it in the image of your mind as you have imagined. You will not dream of it, though it will be like a dream. For I have declared and, and I have decreed it, that when I reverse the prosperity towards My people, towards, Zion, it would be like a dream.

I declared your hearts would be filled, overflowing with excitement and joy, and your mouth would be full of singing. I said that I would cause you to trade your sorrow for joy! I would give you the oil of joy and gladness for mourning. I will fulfill it, I am doing it, says the Lord.

And know that My angelic armies are at work – My glorious ones; the angel of My glory at work in the earth to bring to pass this event, says the Lord. Every realm on every level, every facet of My body in the earth will be glorious. Not one area of life or influence in My people will slip past Me, says the Lord, it will be converted and become glorious. Your mind, your will, I will cause your mind and your will to be towards me, says the Lord. And you will live, and you will walk, and you will dwell in the fatness of My ability, the fatness of My presence, and you will fulfill in the same way, you will fulfill in fatness, you will fulfill in an unequalled way, you will fulfill in the same way, you will fulfill all that I have preordained, and all that I have spoken to come to pass, says the Lord.

No crevice, not a splinter of this earth, will miss the passing of My glory upon it, says God. And glory being brought to it, and opportunity to turn to me or to return to me, of every person on the face of this earth. I will do it like a flood! Like the flood of Noah, I said, as truly as I live, all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the Lord, and the knowledge of the Lord will cover the earth as the waters cover the sea. Yes! I have spoken it. I will do it says the Lord.

And you My messengers, you as My emissaries, you will speak it and you will carry it, you will carry My glory and the glorious things that I will do in the earth, says the Lord.

Watch in your patience, for I said, "in your patience possess ye our souls." Do not move out of anything you see, hear, feel or taste. Do not move out of your senses. Do not move out of the natural, it is set on fire of hell. Do not be moved by anything except what I have spoken, what I have said! Train yourself, says the Lord, to begin everything you do, every decision you make, and that which you say with IT IS WRITTEN! And you will not fail, and you will not fail, and you will not be destroyed, says the Lord. And you WILL NOT BE SHAKEN for I have established it already, said it, and it is so, if I said it, says God. Hallelujah. Praise God. Bless the Lord. Amen

And remember this, says the Lord, that I said... If you would diligently harken to the voice of the Lord your God, be sensitive to My voice. Do you think, says the Lord, that your deliverance from the evil that is coming upon the world, the shaking that has begun, is just automatic. Obey My voice. I said I would send an angel before you to prepare a way for you and to keep you in that way. I also said, beware of him, and obey his voice, for he will not pardon your transgression; for if I speak to you, and I say "Go," and you don't go, then you will be accountable for what happens to you, not Me, or My Words, says the Lord.

If I say to you, "Don't go!" and you go, know, says the Lord, that My angel has no power to negotiate your deliverance if you disobey him. Learn to be sensitive in your spirit, for My angel is a spirit, for the angelic armies are spirits sent forth to minister to you. Learn to listen, learn and be sensitive to follow the direction that I give you, says the Lord, and nothing will by any means hurt you. NO evil will befall you as I have spoken to you, says the Lord. So walk with Me and I'll walk with you. And together we will go through the gate and together we'll see the great glory and victory that is yours, says the Lord. Hallelujah! Praise God!

And you would do best, says the Lord, to destroy all the pre-existing ideas and images that you have of Me and what I will do. Take all of the limits off of me, says the Lord. Remove all of the perimeters except remember that I am the Almighty God! Remember that there is nothing impossible with me, and walk in that realm, walk in the realm of no-margins, no-limiters. And watch what I'll do for you because if you, because if you place the limits, that is all I'll do. If you run, I'll give you the ability to run! If you walk, I'll give you the ability to walk! If you sit down and do nothing, you'll only have the ability to sit down.

So know this, says the Lord, that I said of Israel that they turned back and limited the Holy One of Israel. They limited Me, says the Lord. So remove all of the things that you think I will NOT do for you. Say not, "Well I don't know if He'll do that for me." For I said that because you are Mine, I said concerning you, that when you pass through the floods they will not overflow you, when you walk through the fire you will not be burned. I said, and the flame will not kindle upon you. I said I would give men for you and people for your lives. I spoke it, says the Lord, so you remove all of the perimeters and let Me be the Almighty God for you! Let me fight ALL of your battles for you. You will turn, and your adversaries will not be there, and not a thing will by any means hurt you, says the Lord.

I will cause you, as I have spoken, to be at peace with your enemies. I'll even cause you to set down and sup with them and enjoy them, says the Lord. I'll cause them to be overjoyed, saying, "The Lord delivered you out of my hands." You think I can not do that, says the Lord. I did it for Daniel. I did it for the three Hebrew children. I caused the very ones who tried to destroy them in the fire, to make a decree in the land that everybody had to serve their God! The King looked and said, "Your God whom you serve delivered you out of my hands. Now I make a decree that everybody serve your God!"

I will be God to you like I have never been to any generation before, says the Lord. Because you are the apple of My eye. Because you are My people, you are Mine, says the Lord. And I will be a God unto you. And as I have said, I will break in pieces the gates of brass, and cut in sunder the bars of iron. And I will give you treasures of darkness and hidden riches in secret places; that you may know that the Lord Who calls you by your name, is the God of Israel, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac; for the God of Jacob is your God too, says the Lord. Hallelujah! Praise God! Glory!

And you have not yet know the revelation that I have for you, says the Lord, of "the lifting up of your hands." You have thought of it as a tradition, as only an expression of worship, but it is not so, says the Lord. The most powerful thing, when things are completely impossible, the most dynamic things occur and sometimes can only occur with "the lifting up of your hands!" The raising of the banner, the ensign, raised up causing My angelic armies to do things that they before could not have had authority to have done. Even as I had My men to hold up My servant's hands in the battle; when his hands were raised the enemy was destroyed, and I did things at that time that I'd never done before. I had never stopped the universe until that great day! I had not stopped the universe and held it in My hand still, as I did for a day at that time, says the Lord. And all of the planets, and all of the universe came to its screeching halt, held together only by My power and by My words, says the Lord. And I spoke at that time, and I said I had never done anything like I did for Joshua in that Day. What can I do, what can I NOT do, says the Lord, for you! I will do it for you! I will shake the heavens for you! I will shake the earth for you! I will shake the sea and the dry land for you! I will shake all the nations for you, says the Lord. Because you set yourself on Me and trust in Me, I will do it for you, says the Lord. Amen. Hallelujah!

Well, says the Lord, the judgment of the financial wicked is at hand. Praise God! Hallelujah! Amen. Amen. Praise the Lord!

Visitation with Jesus
Thursday Evening Teaching

© Dr. Don G. Pickney

It was approximately 9:30, the end of the teaching, when a spirit of extended prayer was evident. For several minutes I prayed, pronouncing many blessing upon the people. At some point the group began a time of praise and thanksgiving. I clearly recall everything up to a point. For about the last 45 seconds of that period I have no recollection. Viewing the website video, I found that I began to express a desire to be “lifted out of any ‘time schedule’ that holds men captive.” Next, I uttered the following words, “Let us... let us... let us... let us... know...” When these expressions were voiced, without any recollection on my part, I was apparently already in the spirit, being caught up into the presence of Heaven, and into a spiritual visitation which included both the Lord Jesus and the angel that I have come to know as “the Angel of Glory.”

As my eyes were closed at the end of the service while praying, I had no sense of when I left the physical, except the knowledge that the darkness from my eyes being closed began to brighten. My first experience was hearing a familiar voice say to me, “Come up, come up!” I felt myself being lifted effortlessly upward, although at this point I could not see because there was a thick mist, like being in the very center of a cloud, which as I ascended upwards began dissipating bringing into view the ability to see where I had arrived. I was standing at the top of a stairway on the balcony where I had stood on many prior occasions when caught up in the spirit with the Lord Jesus.

Jesus appeared in his glory, radiant and beautiful beyond description as I had seen Him before, His physical human body transformed by His heavenly glorious immortality. Immediately He spoke again, “I have delight that you wish to spend this time with me.” Before I knew what I was doing (one doesn’t have the same personal control over what one does when caught up in a vision), I replied, “Oh! Oh, yes, it is so wonderful.” I could see that He knew I was surprised at the way He stated His welcome to me. He spoke quickly, “Yes, you summoned me this time. In the past I have called you up for my purpose. But now, you (your spirit) were calling to me wanting time with me for a purpose of your own desire. And I am very glad you wanted this time. I know how you cherish these special occasions, but so do I.”

I was somewhat taken back by his candor about it, but I recalled that my spirit had been searching for exactly where we are in this season of The Day of Jehovah Tsaba. In some recent sessions of praying in the spirit (in tongues), I had sensed that there were things I needed to receive about what is currently taking place in this event, in our nation, and in world affairs. I immediately identified Jesus statement with these times previously in prayer. Without realizing it, in tongues, I had been asking for insight for both myself and the people looking to my ministry.

Jesus spoke, “Your time with me is short, come.” We began walking across the balcony, and as we entered through a doorway, we crossed a beautiful section filled with flowers of green and multi-colored blooms. I recall how the scenery and scent gave me a feeling of being instantly refreshed. I suddenly was aware of the heavens above me as we strolled along. In all of the previous times with Jesus I had never recalled looking up for what we would call “the sky” of Heaven. But there it was, so beautiful! Not blue like earth’s sky, no clouds, and no sun, rather an iridescent ceiling with the softest glow, not reflecting light, instead, radiating every hue and color of light imaginable. There were patterns of ever changing shapes of light, as if the sky were alive with its own personality. One moment the “sky” would be one pattern of colors, then the next moment it would become another whole family of colors, almost as if it were performing, putting on the most unimaginable light show. It was breathtaking as I enjoyed looking at it. I knew that I could travel the earth from one end to the other, and no place could I go for R&R comparable to what I was experiencing at that moment. It was an awesome sight.

Suddenly we were entering another familiar place as we approached the great library of books. As a point of reference from previous testimony of this place, this library consists of the “books of life” of every person born in the earth.

Much like others who have been caught up in the spirit, including Apostle Paul, it is difficult to address an experience such as this with any real point of reference. While everything is quite different from anything experienced on earth, yet everything bears some kind of resemblance. As I have described this “library” in previous writings, I will forbear doing so at this time.

We are introduced to this special book of each person's life in Psalms 139:13-16 "For You did form my inward parts; You did knit me together in my mother's womb. (14) I will confess and praise You for You are fearful and wonderful and for the awful wonder of my birth! Wonderful are Your works, and that my inner self knows right well. (15) My frame was not hidden from You when I was being formed in secret [and] intricately and curiously wrought [as if embroidered with various colors] in the depths of the earth [a region of darkness and mystery]. (16) Your eyes saw my unformed substance, and in Your book all the days [of my life] were written before ever they took shape, when as yet there was none of them."

Here we have the introduction to "the books" found in this great heavenly library. The second time we hear of "the books" is in Daniel 7:10 "A stream of fire came forth from before Him; a thousand thousands ministered to Him and ten thousand times ten thousand rose up and stood before Him; the Judge was seated [the court was in session] and the books were opened."

Then in reference to this same judgment, we read in Revelation 20:12 "And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works."

It is important to realize that these last two scriptures reference what is known as "The Great White Throne Judgment." In the last verse he states.. "the dead were judged." This speaks of the "wicked" or "sinful" dead. At this point the Body of Christ, those who have accepted Jesus as Lord and Savior, will have been changed from humanity to immortal beings, and will have received the manifestation of redemption and eternal life promised to every Christian believer. We will not be judged at this judgment, nor will be judged merely out of the "book of our life."

In a previous visitation, Jesus taught me about "the books." He showed me my book, as I turned pages viewing past, present and future things. I came to understand that in that book, my sinful deeds are "blotted out" by the provision of the blood of Jesus, and His constant intercession for us at the right hand of the Father, a bestowment of the gift of righteousness in Christ. I also saw that, as I would make mistakes in life, taking me outside of God's will, but repenting and turning to Him for direction, He would blot out pages and rewrite them with life-events which would occur bringing me, step-by-step, day-by-day, back towards His perfect will for my life. As I thumbed through pages, I viewed as I entered various outer stages of His will (Romans 12:2 says, "...that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect will of God."

Every person born on earth is in this great library. I also learned many years ago when first introduced to this feature of Heaven, that the books are grouped into categories reflecting God's plan, purpose and calling for each individual.

As we fulfill God's will, he places us into certain areas of ministry in the Body of Christ. Every believer has a ministry in the Church. Even though, not every believer is set in an office of leadership of God's people, i.e. Pastor/Teacher/Prophet/Evangelist, etc., still each one has a part of God's kingdom to fulfill.

I had learned previously that the area of category, holding our book, does not reflect our calling, but God's acceptance of us in that fulfillment, thus His ordaining us in that office.

In my first visitation with the Lord, I was not yet a Pastor. I traveled extensively throughout the Full Gospel Businessmen's Fellowship International, speaking at their monthly banquet meetings, certain conventions, and other organizational meetings, as well as in churches and special meetings throughout the country. So, in my first visitation when being introduced to this heavenly library, my book was taken from, and returned to the category marked "Teacher." Although it was not in English language, while in the spirit, I knew that the name meant "Teacher."

A couple of years after accepting a call to Pastor, I was again caught up with the Lord. At this interval, when Jesus took my "book," He removed it from the category marked, "Teacher," and at the end, instead of returning it to "Teacher," He moved it, placing in it the category of "Pastor."

At that time I said to Him, "But Lord, I have been pastor of the church for approximately two years. Last year in a visitation with you, you removed and returned my book to the same category as "Teacher." Why, only now, are you placing it in the new "Pastor" group. Jesus replied to me, "Although you accepted my call to you to be my "Pastor," you had to have a season of faithfulness before I could approve and ordain you in that office." He went on, "Only those faithful to their calling receive my approval and are ordained by Me to their office of calling." I said to Him, "Lord Jesus, is there a scripture I can use in teaching this to others regarding their office of calling in the church?" He said "Yes," and without His speaking another word, I suddenly knew. I said, "Lord, You said in Matthew 22:14 "For many are called, but few are chosen." Then I recalled another scripture, and I quoted it aloud to Him, “2Peter 1:10 “Because of this, brethren, be all the more solicitous and eager to make sure (to ratify, to strengthen, to make steadfast) your calling and election; for if you do this, you will never stumble or fall.”

Jesus just smiled at me, and softly replied, “Yes, I know, and you have been diligent to follow this principle in your calling. It pleases me when I see faithfulness in our Great Family.

Now, in this current time of visitation with Jesus, we were again standing before Heaven’s vast, innumerable books, ever active and preserved with the record of each person’s life. I wondered as we stood there momentarily, “What will this moment bring for me?”

We began to quickly ascend upwards as row after row passed quickly before us. There seemed to be no end as far as the eye could see from the left to the right, and upwards, the books, containing God’s official record of every day of every person’s life who had ever lived. Suddenly, we slowed and stopped at a section unfamiliar to me.

Many, many years ago, I was privileged to be present when a young man was born who only weighted 1lb, 9 oz. He was so tiny. Only a few hours after his birth, I was allowed into the room where he was lying in an incubator. I had laid my finger through the opening of the incubator screen and placed it upon his little transparent body. In those moments, I received a revelation by the Holy Spirit. This little man would grow up differently than most other children. God’s hand, though most of the time unseen, would be upon him in special ways. He was one of a set of twins. His baby twin brother had not survived the birth process, and was taken to heaven. The Lord spoke to me in that moment. He said to me, “This child will grow up to fulfill double that which was originally intended for him.” I heard in my spirit at that time, “Because of the faith of his mom and dad who had sought for the success of both babies, I am adding to my purpose and plan for him. His destiny will encompass the fulfillment of both things to occur in his own life, but also to fulfill things that would have been for his twin brother had he lived. His is a great destiny, an added portion of life’s fulfillment!”

I was blessed to share this revelation with his parents prior to placing the baby in his tiny grave. The dad, during the days surrounding the birth, had guarded his confession of what he believed. When calls would come into the hospital from friends, he would refer to the birth of “the twins.” He spoke freely of the twin that had not survived, calling him by the name given him at birth. As I shared with them this word from God, I saw a great rest from the loss of the one twin, and a resolve to accept God's perfect will to come to pass in the life of their remaining child.

That was many years ago. Now, they have raised the young surviving twin to adulthood. Olene and I have watched as they have stood in faith for their young growing son to see the fulfillment of that special word from God. Recently, while enjoying a rare visit with them, they spoke of God's promise.

Now, in the presence of Jesus, I was suddenly looking at the spine cover of a book, and instantly I knew... it was the book of the little baby twin brother who had gone on to Heaven, baby "Elisha!" For a moment, had I been conscious of a heartbeat, I think it might have stopped. Jesus handed me the book. He said, "You took responsibility to deliver the word of destiny of this child to his parents, announcing to them good tidings of things yet to be. Now I am allowing you to open the book and see some of the activities pointing to "Elisha's destiny" I am sharing it with you because you may encourage his parents that I am actively working in behalf of my promise to them."

A part of me felt unworthy to do this. I thought of his parents, and their unwavering dedication to the Lord's service. Very softly I said, "Oh my, how they would love to be standing here, yet here am I in their stead." I purposed to not forget a single thing I viewed in this book. Yet, I must confess, I apparently retained only what was God's will for me to share. I recall seeing many things, yet not currently possessing many specifics. What I did retain, however, I will share with their permission.

Going across sections and pages of the book, I realized that "baby Elisha" was called, while in his mother's womb to be a youth leader... that the anointing would rest upon him at an early age, creating a desire to work with youngsters in children's church, and eventually with teens. His was a pastoral calling to the youth, not that of an evangelist. Had "Elisha" lived, he would have served in full-time ministry. He would maintain an almost magnetic pull of kids reaching out for his help and friendship. Children would find Jesus at a very early age because of this anointing... an anointing which would now find its self residing in his surviving twin brother. God would have another purpose for the surviving twin which would occupy his primary attention, yet the existence of this "second calling" would be an added dimension of his life, and dominate a secondary part of his life-vision.

I saw in “Elisha’s book,” just as if he had been living it himself on earth, his becoming a blessing to many youngsters. There began to develop a magnetism (through his brother) that not only drew the kids, but also the comfortableness of parents to him. For some extended period of time, something wonderful was occurring day by day covering a large section of the book.

Then I looked at a page, and there I read the occurrence of an injustice done him... a thoughtless pastor/leader, motivated by fleshly power, had been used to activate a special attack of Satan to thwart God’s plan for Elisha’s fulfillment through his brother. I read of thoughts and intents, and then actions taken against Elisha’s calling and fulfillment, against his surviving twin. These unfolding events evidenced a plan of Satan, an attempt to cause the young man to be deeply hurt due to this injustice, occurring while working with a group at church. I saw the record of the attack to prevent Elisha’s destiny from maturing in his brother here on earth.

I recalled the parents sharing some of this with me a couple of years ago while visiting with us. I recall, as the dad shared this development with me, his bewilderment over the intenseness of the disagreement that developed and quickly mounted around this matter. What should have been a minor situation quickly escalated as egos flared. The Dad would muse at the absurdity of what was occurring, there seemed to be no logic to it. He emailed me on more than one occasion, sharing email messages that came to them from the pastor/leader regarding “church discipline” that was needed... over nothing!!! A young man was trying to volunteer to do ministry at an age when many young teens just want to have a good time. Yet, his service was being ridiculously scrutinized (more than could be explained). As I recall, the Dad’s thinking was, “Why are they making such a BIG thing of this? There was no wrongdoing, only a questioning by the pastor/leader of methods my son was employing to minister.”

The teen had volunteered to help with the kids program. Even if they questioned his actions, or wanted a correction of his methods, why were they reacting with such intenseness? Why would they not just pass it off as youth’s exuberance, allowing his service to continue?”

At this moment with Jesus, I was being shown why Satan attacked with such vehemence. This was not just about a local, momentary event. The devil was out to thwart God’s revealed plan for Elisha’s destiny to be fulfilled through his twin brother. A unique ministry calling, one that Satan had thought was destroyed due to the child’s death, was now showing up in his twin brother. Satan had seen this in the life of Jacob and Esau. At the death of Jonathan, an anointing came upon King David to give added attention to Jonathan's family.

In addition to Elisha's surviving brother's own destined purpose and plans, the young survivor, without knowing it, was acting in obedience to a second heavenly calling.

Now, deeply hurt, his young heart confused, there was a withdrawal from the advent of ministry work, to momentarily only pursue his own destiny, temporarily leaving God's "other plan" behind him for a season. But God will never "throw in the towel." He will not be defeated.

You will recall with Old Testament Israel, how God reached out over and over again to his elect people. But even when His plan looked as if it was permanently thwarted, and a generation of Israel refused to enter the promised-land, as they murmured, "Would God we would die in this wilderness," God had to say to them, "As you have spoken in mine ears, so it shall be, Your carcasses will fall in this wilderness." But God refuses to be conquered. At that time in Israel, just as it looked as if it was over, God uttered a glorious declaration, Numbers 14:21 "But truly as I live all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the Lord."

As I read through young "Elisha's book" following that past occurrence, I saw page after page, after page of his book blotted out. Then, each page was carefully re-written, I could see a special tender care, evidencing that God's plan was not abandoned in the mind of God. While I did not retain important specifics, I recall being excited as I viewed pages of the future, and entered into awareness of very great things to come! I knew that I had a wonderful encouraging word for these parents... God was not finished with his "double-portion" plan of their surviving son, now into his manhood.

I looked up and saw the brightness of Jesus countenance... I could see the Lord's excitement both with my joy, and also with His own personal pleasure of knowing God's unyielding resolve to not be denied in this great blessing of destiny's fulfillment. I was overwhelmed with God's awesome faithfulness to his word.

We began ascending again, moving over some distance to our right-hand, moving upwards up until we had reached the section where my book resided. Jesus took it from its resting place in the "Pastor" section. My favorite thing in ministry is to be addressed, "Pastor." I prefer it even over my own name.

Jesus spoke to me, “I know that there is no “end of your rope,” and that you “cannot be discouraged or dismayed,” you have thoroughly established that in your faith, and are to be commended for it.” He continued, “Still, I want to give you some “added” blessing because, whether you are aware of it or not, it will be strengthening to you in your work and ministry. You may use it to strengthen your brothers and sisters. As Lord, Head of the Church, it is my responsibility to give you every grace necessary for your success.”

He opened the book, turning it my direction and handing to me. I looked down at the pages in view of my glance. It spoke of what I knew to be future events. Without the sense of being out of order, I cried out with a great shout of joy, “Praise God!”

I recalled, in an earlier visitation, the Lord had instructed me that He could only entrust future events in my pages providing that I would not speak of them until I was directed by the Holy Spirit to do so. God holds many events to come in secret so that they are not revealed in the earth until their time of fulfillment. This is what Apostle Paul referenced when he spoke of his own heavenly visitation saying, 2Corinthians 12:4 “How that he was caught up into paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter.”

Satan would love to know many of these secrets for his own evil strategies. 1Corinthians 2:7-8 teaches us, “But rather what we are setting forth is a wisdom of God once hidden [from the human understanding] and now revealed to us by God- [that wisdom] which God devised and decreed before the ages for our glorification [to lift us into the glory of His presence]. (8) None of the rulers of this age or world perceived and recognized and understood this, for if they had, they would never have crucified the Lord of glory.

Although Jesus did not speak of it, I noticed that he returned my book, not to the section of “Pastor,” but to the section called, “Finance.” I sensed no desire to question him but it left an impression of “change” that would surely be soon coming to my ministry. I believed that it was the beginning of the fulfillment of his previous word to me, “Six days shall you work, and the seventh shall you rest.” I felt that I was ready to enter into a great fulfillment of the “prophetic portion” of my assignment concerning the Day of Jehovah Tsaba.

Jesus interrupted my thoughts as he said to me, “I want you to see for yourself what is currently taking place in the higher spiritual sphere of influence regarding the great Day of the Lord of hosts (the Day of Jehovah Tsaba).”

At this point, I recall being distantly aware of the surroundings of those who were physically attending me (My wife, Olene, and others I understand were gathered there). I do not recall anything except hearing distant voices and seeing things as transparent shadows but unable to know exactly what it was.

Very quickly, however, I was fully back with Jesus as we began moving along an outer corridor, and quickly arrived back to the balcony where I was first greeted in Heaven. Looking ahead to my right I could see the staircase often ascended as I entered prior visits with the Lord.

Jesus spoke, “I am going to leave you here while I attend to another matter nearby.” As he spoke, I was reminded that one of things he had inherited as the Savior and Redeemer of humanity was His inability to be more than one place at a time. He is forever called to that human body-form, although now clothed with a glorious body of immortality. I knew, if His glory were lifted allowing it to be seen, I would still see the wounded body of the man of Galilee, a body to be worn forever attesting to the legal side of His redemption of mankind. I was again overwhelmed with dedication to the Father and love for us. No wonder the scripture proclaims, Revelation 1:5 “And from Jesus Christ the faithful and trustworthy Witness, the Firstborn of the dead [first to be brought back to life] and the Prince (Ruler) of the kings of the earth. To Him Who ever loves us and has once [for all] loosed and freed us from our sins by His own blood.”

He quickly disappeared almost as if dissolving into the near distance. With that, I turned and looked over the balcony. I felt relaxed as I leaned towards the outer part of the beautiful heavenly banister. What I saw, however, was anything but a scene of tranquility.

In a prior visitation with the Lord, I had been introduced to an angel of God. He was introduced at that time to me as “The Angel of Glory.” I knew he held that title, given to him because of God’s assignment to him over the prophet Isaiah’s “The day of the Lord of hosts (Jehovah Tsaba) found in Isaiah 2:12. I knew this angel was a fierce “warring angel” because God’s name Jehovah Tsaba, according to Psalms 24 means, “King of glory,” the “Lord, strong, mighty in battle!” In a prior visit, I had seen his eyes transformed in a moment from a deep pool of mystery, into a living, flowing stream of consuming fire.

I was told at that time this angel was a “Captain of the hosts” of God’s angelic army, with a specific assignment for the deliverance of God’s people. He is identified and His assignment revealed in Zechariah 2 and Haggai 2:

Zechariah 2:3-11 “And behold, the angel who talked with me went forth and another angel went out to meet him, (4) And he said to the second angel, Run, speak to this young man, saying . . . (8) For thus said the Lord of hosts, after [His] glory had sent me [His messenger] to the nations who plundered you--for he who touches you touches the apple or pupil of His eye: (9) Behold, I will swing my hand over them and they shall become plunder for those who served them. Then you shall know (recognize and understand) that the Lord of hosts has sent me [His messenger]. (10) Sing and rejoice, O Daughter [branch] of Zion; for behold, I come, and I will dwell in the midst of you, says the Lord. (11) And many nations [calling of the Gentiles] shall join themselves to the Lord in that day and shall be My people [the Church]. And I will dwell in the midst of you, and you shall know (recognize and understand) that the Lord of hosts has sent me [His messenger] for you.”

Hag 2:6-9 For thus says the Lord of hosts: Yet once more, in a little while, I will shake and make tremble the [starry] heavens, the earth, the sea, and the dry land; [Heb. 12:26.] (7) And I will shake all nations and the desire and the precious things of all nations shall come in, and I will fill this house with splendor, says the Lord of hosts. [Isa. 60:5; Matt. 2:1-12.] (8) The silver is Mine and the gold is Mine, says the Lord of hosts. (9) The latter glory of this house [with its successor, to which Jesus came] shall be greater than the former, says the Lord of hosts; and in this place will I give peace and prosperity, says the Lord of hosts.

Clearly, from scripture, we see that this angel, who spoke with Zechariah, holds the assignment of “Angel of Glory!” Equally as clear, we see that he is a “warring angel,” i.e. Zechariah 2:9 Amp. “Behold, I will swing my hand over them and they shall become plunder for those who served them.” Haggai 2:6,7 “I will shake and make tremble the [starry] heavens, the earth, the sea, and the dry land; [Heb. 12:26.] (7) And I will shake all nations and the desire and the precious things of all nations shall come in...”

The Message Translation records the beginning of the verse, Zec 2:9 “Yes, and at the right time I'll give the signal and they'll be stripped and thrown out by their own servants.” Then you'll know for sure that GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies sent me on this mission.”

Standing now from the balcony of Heaven, I looked down upon a scene that is hard to describe in earthly terms. Here is my somewhat feeble attempt at doing so.

The Angel of Glory (I described him in detail in a previous visitation) was standing head to head against the appearance of another “angel.” Although he was actively transforming himself into an angel of light, I knew instinctively that he was an “angel of darkness.”

2Corinthians 11:14-15 And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. (15) Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.

This “angel of darkness” was fierce, though his body appeared glorious, shining with a brightness somewhat like that of the Angel of Glory, while his face was harsh and hard, and weathered with wickedness. His facial characteristics were like the appearance of a man who has spent wasted years in bars and honky-tonks, abusing himself with alcohol, living a life of frivolity and immorality. It was evidenced to me that, when looking humanly on the countenance of such a man, we are really seeing the demonic influence of Satan’s effect. There was an evil presence emanating his being. His position was one of intense resistance, right in the face of the Angel of Glory.

What I observed from this point is strange and mysterious. I can not explain how I was able to view the scene that unfolded.

The Angel of Glory waved his hand, wielding a sword, in a gesture of authority. The swing of it would begin in the face of the “dark angel,” and moving in an arch to the right, make a full gesture outward and downward for an approximate 120 degrees. Then he would swing it back again to the face of the “dark angel,” repeating it again. This was done at first, three times. As he repeated this gesture, his body would glow with a greater intensity of light; his face also would increasingly shine so brightly that I could not bear to look at it. Pools of fire would literally glow from his eyes as if they appeared about to devour the “dark angel.” I would see the horizon around the earth light up brilliantly with what appeared to be great lightening storms. I knew that vast armies of angelic forces were responding to the Angel of Glory’s authority. I recalled the scripture:

Psalms 68:17-21 “The chariots of God are twenty thousand, even thousands upon thousands. The Lord is among them as He was in Sinai, [so also] in the Holy Place (the sanctuary in Jerusalem). (18) You have ascended on high. You have led away captive a train of vanquished foes; You have received gifts of men, yes, of the rebellious also, that the Lord God might dwell there with them. [Eph. 4:8.] (19) Blessed be the Lord, Who bears our burdens and carries us day by day, even the God Who is our salvation! Selah [pause, and calmly think of that]! (20) God is to us a God of deliverances and salvation; and to God the Lord belongs escape from death [setting us free]. (21) But God will shatter the heads of His enemies, the hairy scalp of such a one as goes on still in his trespasses and guilty ways.”

As this scene unfolded, the gloriousness of “dark angel” would pale much like brass looks when it is corroded with oxide, brass covered with a metal looking coating. The glory, first seen on the “dark angel,” would dissipate almost to nothing as the Angel of Glory would make his gesture of authority.

Several scriptures that illustrate how angels do warfare, using their authority, include:

Joshua 5:13-15 “When Joshua was by Jericho, he looked up, and behold, a Man stood near him with His drawn sword in His hand. And Joshua went to Him and said to Him, Are you for us or for our adversaries? (14) And He said, No [neither], but as Prince [Msg – Commander; KJV – Captain] of the Lord's host have I now come. And Joshua fell on his face to the earth and worshiped, and said to Him, What says my Lord to His servant? (15) And the Prince of the Lord's host said to Joshua, Loose your shoes from off your feet, for the place where you stand is holy. And Joshua did so.”

Numbers 22:22-35 “And God's anger was kindled because he went, and the Angel of the Lord stood in the way as an adversary against him. Now he was riding upon his donkey, and his two servants were with him. (23) And the donkey saw the Angel of the Lord standing in the way and His sword drawn in His hand, and the donkey turned aside out of the way and went into the field. And Balaam struck the donkey to turn her into the way. (24) But the Angel of the Lord stood in a path of the vineyards, a wall on this side and a wall on that side. (25) And when the donkey saw the Angel of the Lord, she thrust herself against the wall and crushed Balaam's foot against it, and he struck her again. (26) And the Angel of the Lord went further and stood in a narrow place where there was no room to turn, either to the right hand or to the left. (27) And when the donkey saw the Angel of the Lord, she fell down under Balaam, and Balaam's anger was kindled and he struck the donkey with his staff. (28) And the Lord opened the mouth of the donkey, and she said to Balaam, What have I done to you that you should strike me these three times? (29) And Balaam said to the donkey, Because you have ridiculed and provoked me! I wish there were a sword in my hand, for now I would kill you! (30) And the donkey said to Balaam, Am not I your donkey, upon which you have ridden all your life long until this day? Was I ever accustomed to do so to you? And he said, No. (31) Then the Lord opened Balaam's eyes, and he saw the Angel of the Lord standing in the way with His sword drawn in His hand; and he bowed his head and fell on his face. (32) And the Angel of the Lord said to him, Why have you struck your donkey these three times? See, I came out to stand against and resist you, for your behavior is willfully obstinate and contrary before Me. (33) And the ass saw Me and turned from Me these three times. If she had not turned from Me, surely I would have slain you and saved her alive. (34) Balaam said to the Angel of the Lord, I have sinned, for I did not know You stood in the way against me. But now, if my going displeases You, I will return. (35) The Angel of the Lord said to Balaam, Go with the men, but you shall speak only what I tell you. So Balaam went with the princes of Balak.”

1Chronicles 21:11-27 “So Gad (God’s prophet, a seer) came to David and said to him, Thus says the Lord: Take which one you will: (12) Either three years of famine, or three months of devastation before your foes, while the sword of your enemies overtakes you, or else three days of the sword of the Lord and pestilence in the land, and the angel of the Lord destroying throughout all the borders of Israel. Now therefore, consider what answer I shall return to Him Who sent me. (13) And David said to Gad, I am in great and distressing perplexity; let me fall, I pray you, into the hands of the Lord, for very great and many are His mercies; but let me not fall into the hands of man. (14) So the Lord sent a pestilence upon Israel, and there fell of Israel 70,000 men. (15) God sent an angel to Jerusalem to destroy it, and as he was destroying, the Lord beheld, and He regretted and relented of the evil and said to the destroying angel, It is enough; now stay your hand. And the angel of the Lord stood by the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite. (16) David lifted up his eyes and saw the angel of the Lord standing between earth and the heavens, having a drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders, clothed in sackcloth, fell upon their faces. (17) And David said to God, Is it not I who commanded the people to be numbered? It is I who has sinned and done evil indeed; but as for these sheep, what have they done? Let Your hand, I pray You, O Lord my God, be on me and on my father's house, but not on Your people, that they should be plagued. (18) Then the angel of the Lord commanded Gad to say to David that David should go up and set up an altar to the Lord in the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite. (19) So David went up at Gad's word, which he spoke in the name of the Lord. (20) Now Ornan was threshing wheat, and he turned back and saw the angel; and his four sons hid themselves. (21) And as David came to Ornan, Ornan looked and saw him, and went out from the threshing floor and bowed himself to David with his face to the ground. (22) Then David said to Ornan, Grant me the site of this threshing floor, that I may build an altar on it to the Lord. You shall charge me the full price for it, that the plague may be averted from the people. (23) Ornan said to David, Take it; and let my lord the king do what is good in his eyes. I give you the oxen also for burnt offerings and the threshing sledges for wood and the wheat for the meal offering. I give it all. (24) And King David said to Ornan, No, but I will pay the full price. I will not take what is yours for the Lord, nor offer burnt offerings which cost me nothing. (25) So David gave to Ornan for the site 600 shekels of gold by weight. (26) And David built there an altar to the Lord and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings and called upon the Lord; and He answered him by fire from heaven upon the altar of burnt offering. (27) Then the Lord commanded the [avenging] angel, and he put his sword back into its sheath.”

2Kings 6:12-18 “And one of his servants said, None, my lord, O king: but Elisha, the prophet that is in Israel, telleth the king of Israel the words that thou speakest in thy bedchamber. (13) And he said, Go and spy where he is, that I may send and fetch him. And it was told him, saying, Behold, he is in Dothan. (14) Therefore sent he thither horses, and chariots, and a great host: and they came by night, and compassed the city about. (15) And when the servant of the man of God was risen early, and gone forth, behold, an host compassed the city both with horses and chariots. And his servant said unto him, Alas, my master! how shall we do? (16) And he answered, Fear not: for they that be with us are more than they that be with them. (17) And Elisha prayed, and said, LORD, I pray thee, open his eyes, that he may see. And the LORD opened the eyes of the young man; and he saw: and, behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha. (18) And when they came down to him, Elisha prayed unto the LORD, and said, Smite this people, I pray thee, with blindness. And he smote them with blindness according to the word of Elisha.”

At the same time, I could see upon the earth as if it bore the record of all of the economies of the world. In similitude, I saw images throughout the earth of dollars, stocks, bonds, and other very elaborate looking documents of wealth. As the “the dark angel’s” glory would dissipate in response to the Angel of Glory’s arm gesture, I would see these tokens of the economy of the world begin to pale, become inactive, slipping in their appearance, and at times in a steep slide. At these times, cries of fear and anguish would increase in a terrible harmony of angry backlash.

But then the “dark angel,” stretched forth his (empty) hand towards the earth, unlike the Angel of Glory’s arched gesture manifesting an air of control and authority, the “dark angel” had no sword, but would point his horrible looking finger towards the earth, as if he was attempting a manipulative gesture to impress and control the world. I would see the earth begin again to shine with greater brightness. I looked to my right, like seeing a vision within a vision, and saw all of the key leaders of the earth, much like the “class picture” that was taken of the recent G-20 meeting, except not as posed.

G20 leaders gathered in London, Wednesday, April 1, 2009, are pictured with Britain's Queen Elizabeth II, center, at London's Buckingham Palace. Back from left: Mr Dominique Strauss-Kahn, Managing Director of the International Monetary Fund; Ban Ki-moon, Secretary General of the United Nations; Pascal Lamy, Director General of the World Trade Organisation; Abhisit Vejjajiva, Chair of ASEAN and Prime Minister of Thailand; Silvio Berlusconi, Prime Minister of Italy; Taro Aso, Prime Minister of Japan; Mirek Topolánek, President of the European Council; Professor Mario Draghi, Chairman of the Financial Stability Forum; Robert Zoellick, President of the World Bank. Middle from left: Kevin Rudd, Prime Minister of Australia; Stephen Harper, Prime Minister of Canada; Angela Merkel, Chancellor of Germany; Jose Luis Zapatero, Prime Minister of Spain; Jan Peter Balkenende, Prime Minister of the Netherlands; Kgalema Motlanthe, President of South Africa; Barack Obama, President of the United States of America; Recep Tayyip Erdogan, Prime Minister of Turkey; Manmohan Singh, Prime Minister of India; Jose Manuel Barroso, President of the European Commission; Meles Zenawi Chair of NEPAD and Prime Minister of Ethiopia). Front from left: Lee Myung-bak, President of Korea; Nicolas Sarkozy, President of France; King Abdullah of Saudi Arabia; Hu Jintao, President of China; Gordon Brown, Prime Minister of the United Kingdom; Queen Elizabeth II; Luiz Inácio Lula da Silva, President of Brazil; Susilo Bambang Yudhoyono, President of Indonesia; Felipe Calderon, President of Mexico; Cristina Kirchner, President of Argentina; Dmitry A Medvedev, President of Russia

I saw their faces as the “dark angel” would point his finger. I would see their nature change, becoming very victorious, intelligent, inspired, but as the scene unfolded in like manner over and over again, they also became more scheming and conniving. They began manipulating society, issuing edicts, proclaiming false answers for the world-wide economic crisis, and I would see the dollar signs, the stocks and bonds, and the commodities of the earth become active and busy again.

Britain's Prime Minister Gordon Brown with New Partnership for Africa's Development (N.E.P.A.D.) Meles Zenawi at the G20 Summit in London on April 2.

I would hear the voices of people as they expressed to one another their hopes for a brighter future. The earth would begin to look much like it would early in the morning at sunrise (much like the light rising on the surface of the earth in the above picture).

As the “dark angel” would take this action, I would see another exchange of glory as the greater intense glory that was gained previously in the Angel of Glory would lessen somewhat, but never becoming like the corroded brass effect of the other “angel.”

Again, I saw the previous gestures and fierce authority of the Angel of Glory repeated. As the Angel of Glory would wave his hand in authority over the earth, I would hear angry voices crying, and I would hear repeated shouts of “BLOOD-LETTING,” over and over again and fear-ridden cries of anguish. Across the world I would see angry, fearful people taking to the streets, murders, suicides, and civil unrest. As the angry cries of “BLOOD-LETTING,” began echoing through the earth, I saw again the G-20 leaders' faces become fearful and panicked. They would huddle and squirm with discomfort and distress. After a time, they began quarreling with each other, their voices keeping a tone of deception so that the world would not know of their striving with one another. Simultaneously, I would witness a global downturn, decreasing stability, as strange economic methods were applied that would universally fail, creating havoc and more uncertainty. I saw an endless line of unemployed as joblessness would skyrocket, not to return again in the near future, and the disappointment would turn to anger and more social unrest.

I turned again to look at the Angel of Glory, just in time to see him wave his hand again as before, as any remaining glory still retained by the “dark angel” lessened consistently with each successive turn of battle between the two beings.

In a most baffling scene, I witnessed a kind of spiritual battle unlike anything I could have devised from my knowledge of the Word. As I watched with amazement, witnessing the Angel of Glory as he would use his sword in gesture of authority, I recalled all of the scriptures previously rehearsed of how angelic warfare occurs.

As you can see, the sword of the angel was used as an instrument of authority. In my visitation and witness of what was taking place, it is significant that the “dark angel,” apparently a captain of one of Satan’s hosts, had no sword... because he had no real authority! He could only use his finger to entice, deceive, and manipulate those world leaders of society, forcing them to do his will.

The Angel of Glory had the ability to bring to pass the judgment (vengeance) of God upon the earth, and although there was an exchange of a kind of battle taking place, there was no suggestion of the possibility that Satan’s “dark angel” could possibly prevail.

This scene continued to be repeated as long as I had to observe it. Even and my attention was moved back to Jesus, the battle continued.

I was suddenly aware that Jesus had returned and was standing with me. He spoke with a demonstration of emotion as he said, “The time is short. Be faithful to what I have assigned you. Declare my glory upon the Church, and the glory of this earth to my people. Remind them that you did not see any believers in the battle fray, only angels. The day is at hand, the time is here, the battle is almost won, and the world will see the transfer of glory that I have promised to the Church.”

I knew that my visit was over. He moved away from me and stepped to the edge of the balcony, stretching forth his arms and hands, his body erect with royal appearance, as I began hearing a swell of praise to Him coming up from the earth, the sound flowing over into Heaven’s atmosphere.

I awakened to where I had been laid after the service by some of the men on the couch.

As we watch the behavior of the banking, economic, political events unfolding, we should be aware that there is “orchestration” of these events taking place in the spiritual heavenlies, effecting both God’s will, and Satan’s resistance to the plan and purpose of the Day of Jehovah Tsaba. Satan’s representative forces are battling against “our gates open continually, not shut day nor night, that men may bring to us the riches, wealth, goods, substance, means, men and resources of the Gentile world.” There is a battle being waged against God’s plan for “the rich sea trade and wealth of nations” being “converted” to us... against our “consuming the riches of the Gentiles and in their glory boasting ourselves.” Praise God! The battle is the Lords!
