

Seven Key components to Understand the End-Time Wealth Transfer for the Church

© Copyright 2019 – Dr. Don G. Pickney

Nothing is created and then it is conceived. God has the end planned from the beginning, and has brought the affairs of the World into His Hand – Nothing of significance is happening by chance:

Isaiah 14:24-27 LITV “Jehovah of Hosts has sworn, saying, Surely as I have thought, so it shall be; and as I have purposed, it shall rise up; (25) to break Assyria in My land, and trample him on My mountains. Then his yoke shall depart from them, and his burden shall depart from his shoulders. (26) This is the purpose that is purposed on all the earth; and this the hand that is stretched out on all the nations. (27) For Jehovah of Hosts has purposed. And who shall reverse it? And His hand is stretched out. Who shall turn it back?”

Isaiah 23:9 KJV “The LORD of hosts hath purposed it, to stain the pride of all glory, and to bring into contempt all the honorable of the earth.”

Isaiah 46:9-10 LITV “Remember former things from forever, for I am God, and no one else is God, even none like Me, (10) declaring the end from the beginning, and from the past those things which were not done, saying, My counsel shall rise; and, I will do all My desire.”

Isaiah 48:3 LITV I have declared the former things from then; and they went out of My mouth; and I made them hear; suddenly I acted, and they came about.

Seven Key Components within God’s Prophetic Hand:

1. God’s Global Last Generation Plan for the Nations – Society (Political and Economic Powers)

“...for I am with you, saith the LORD of hosts [Jehovah Tsaba]: (5) According to the word that I covenanted with you when ye came out of Egypt, so my spirit remaineth among you: fear ye not. (6) For thus saith the LORD of hosts [Jehovah Tsaba]; Yet once, it is a little while, and I will shake the heavens, and the earth, and the sea, and the dry land; (7) And I will shake all nations, and the desire of all nations shall come: and I will fill this house with glory, saith the LORD of hosts”

[Jehovah Tsaba]. (8) The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, saith the LORD of hosts [Jehovah Tsaba]."

Isaiah 40:15, 17,-23-24 MSG "Why, the nations are but a drop in a bucket, a mere smudge on a window. Watch him sweep up the islands like so much dust off the floor. (17) All the nations add up to simply nothing before him-- less than nothing is more like it. A minus. (22) God sits high on the circle of the earth. The people look like mere ants. He stretches out the skies like a canvas-- yes, like a tent canvas to live under. (23) He ignores what all the princes say and do. The rulers of the earth count for nothing. (24) Princes and rulers don't amount to much. Like seeds barely rooted, just sprouted, They shrivel when God blows on them. Like flecks of chaff, they're gone with the wind."

2. God's Global Last Generation Plan for the Church – The Glory upon the Body of Believers in Christ

"...and ye shall know that the LORD of hosts [Jehovah Tsaba] hath sent me. (10) Sing and rejoice, O daughter [Heb. Fig. Branch] of Zion: for, lo, I come, and I will dwell in the midst of thee, saith the LORD. (11) And many nations shall be joined to the LORD in that day, and shall be my people: and I will dwell in the midst of thee, and thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto thee... (13) Be silent, O all flesh, before the LORD: for he [Jehovah Tsaba] is raised up out of his holy habitation."

3. God's Global Plan to Reveal His Angelic Kingdom for the Church's Blessing – The Hosts of the Lord (Angels of glory)

In selected portions of Zechariah 2:8-13, we see that an angel of God was sent to Zechariah. The angel speaks in the name of Jehovah Tsaba with a prophetic announcement. Zec 2:8-13 KJV "For thus saith the LORD of hosts [Jehovah Tsaba]; After the glory hath he sent me unto the nations which spoiled you: for he that toucheth you toucheth the apple of his eye. (9) For, behold, [the angel continues] I will shake mine hand upon them, and they shall be a spoil to their servants." [<sup>1</sup> Read the addendum below for reference to the angel's reference to "he has sent me unto the nations which spoiled you..."]

4. How the End-Time Wealth Transfer will Happen – A Vengeance to Comfort (It's All About Angels)
5. A New Revelation of Zion – The Dwelling Place of God (When God's Prophetic View of Zion Changed)
6. The Jews, the Gentiles, and the Church – Who is God's "God's Chosen People" (His Holy Nation)?
7. All of this is God's Plan for the Salvation of the lost – The Two manifestations of Glory to Bring in the "Harvest." God says by His Spirit:

- "And I will give you the glory of the world so that you can take my glory (power, signs and wonders) to the World."
- "I will give you the world's goods so that you can go to the world and get My goods – My goods are the souls of lost humanity."

[On August 2, 2000, in one of our services, the Spirit of God came upon Olene, my wife. She prophetically exclaimed: "God is going to give the world's glory to us, so that we can take His glory to the world!" Immediately after she spoke those words, I heard this in my spirit and prophesied: "God will give us the world's goods (wealth) so that we may go to the world to get His goods (souls)!"]

Addendum #1 – The following, photographed from the congressional record, is an actual depiction of McFadden's Speech at the founding and congressional passage of The Federal Reserve Bank and System:

Here, in easy to read words, is a large section of Congressman McFadden's address to the congress depicted on the previous page. You should find it revealing with regards to the Federal Reserve Banking system. In fact, if studied thoroughly, his speech could serve as a primer of what we are faced with in this present economic crisis. If you can "weather" a history lesson, he begins his speech as follows:

"Mr. Chairman, at the present session of Congress we have been dealing with emergency situations. We have been dealing with the effect of things rather than with the cause of things. In this particular discussion I shall deal with some of the causes that lead up to these proposals. There are underlying principles which are responsible for conditions such as we have at the present time and I shall deal with one of these in particular which is tremendously important in the consideration that you are now giving to this bill.

Mr. Chairman, we have in this country one of the most corrupt institutions the world has ever known. I refer to the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks. The Federal Reserve Board, a Government board, has cheated the Government of the United States and the people of the United States out of enough money to pay the national debt. The depredations and iniquities of the Federal Reserve Board has cost this country enough money to pay the national debt several times over. This evil institution has impoverished and ruined the people of the United States, has bankrupted itself, and has practically bankrupted our Government. It has done this through the defects of the law under which it operates, through the maladministration of that law by the Federal Reserve Board, and through the corrupt practices of the moneyed vultures who control it.

Some people think the Federal Reserve banks are United States Government institutions. They are not Government institutions. They are private credit monopolies which prey upon the people of the United States for the benefit of themselves and their foreign customers; foreign and domestic speculators and swindlers; and rich and predatory money lenders. In that dark crew of financial pirates there are those who would cut a man's throat to get a dollar out of his pocket; there are those who send money into States to buy votes to control our legislation; and there are those who maintain international propaganda for the purpose of deceiving us and of wheedling us into the granting of new concessions which will permit them to cover up their past misdeeds and set again in motion their gigantic train of crime.

These twelve private credit monopolies were deceitfully and disloyally foisted upon this country by the bankers who came here from Europe and repaid us for our hospitality by undermining our American institutions. Those bankers took money out of this country to finance Japan in a war against Russia. They created a reign of terror in Russia with our money in order to help that war along. They instigated the separate peace between Germany and Russia and thus drove a wedge between the Allies in the World War. They financed Trotsky's passage from New York to Russia so that he might assist in the destruction of the Russian Empire. They fomented and instigated the Russian revolution and they placed a large fund of American dollars at Trotsky's disposal in one of their branch banks in Sweden so that through him Russian homes might be thoroughly broken up and Russian children flung far and wide from their natural protectors. They have since begun the breaking up of American homes and the dispersal of American children.

It has been said that President Wilson was deceived by the attentions of these bankers and by the philanthropic poses they assumed. It has been said that when he discovered the manner in which he had been misled by Colonel House, he turned against that busybody, that "holy monk" of the financial empire, and showed him the door. He had the grace to do that, and in my opinion he deserves great credit for it.

President Wilson died a victim of deception. When he came to the Presidency, he had certain qualities of mind and heart which entitled him to a high place in the councils of this Nation; but there was one thing he was not and which he never aspired to be; he was not a banker. He said that he knew very little about banking. It was, therefore, on the advice of others that the iniquitous Federal Reserve act, the death warrant of American liberty, became law in his administration.

Mr. Chairman, there should be no partisanship in matters concerning the banking and currency affairs of this country, and I do not speak with any.

In 1912 the National Monetary Association, under the chairmanship of the late Senator Nelson W. Aldrich, made a report and presented a vicious bill called the National Reserve Association bill. This bill is usually spoken of as the Aldrich bill. Senator Aldrich did not write the Aldrich bill. He was the tool, but not the accomplice, of the European-born bankers who for nearly twenty years had been scheming to set up a central bank in this country and who in 1912 had spent and were continuing to spend vast sums of money to accomplish their purpose.

The Aldrich bill was condemned in the platform upon which Theodore Roosevelt was nominated in the year 1912, and in that same year, when Woodrow Wilson was nominated, the Democratic platform, as adopted at the Baltimore convention, expressly stated: "We are opposed to the Aldrich plan for a central bank." This was plain language. The men who ruled the Democratic Party then promised the people that if they were returned to power there would be no central bank established here while they held the reigns of government. Thirteen months later that promise was broken, and the Wilson administration, under the tutelage of those sinister Wall Street figures who stood behind Colonel House, established here in our free country the worm-eaten monarchical institution of the "king's bank" to control us from the top downward, and to shackle us from the cradle to the grave. The Federal Reserve act destroyed our old and characteristic way of doing business; it discriminated against our one-name commercial paper, the finest in the world; it set up the antiquated two-name paper, which is the present curse of this country, and which wrecked every country which has ever given it scope; it fastened down upon this country the very tyranny from which the framers of the Constitution sought to save us.

One of the greatest battles for the preservation of this Republic was fought out here in Jackson's day, when the Second Bank of the United States, which was founded upon the same false principles as those which are here exemplified in the Federal Reserve act, was hurled out of existence. After the downfall of the Second Bank of the United States in 1837, the country was warned against the dangers that might ensue if the predatory interests, after being cast out, should come back in disguise and unite themselves to the Executive, and through him acquire control of the Government. That is what the predatory interests did when they came back in the livery of hypocrisy and under false pretenses obtained the passage of the Federal Reserve act.

The danger that the country was warned against came upon us and is shown in the long train of horrors attendant upon the affairs of the traitorous and dishonest Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve banks are fully liable. This is an era of financed crime and in the financing of crime, the Federal Reserve Board does not play the part of a disinterested spectator.

It has been said that the draughtsman who was employed to write the text of the Federal Reserve bill used a text of the Aldrich bill for his purpose. It has been said that the language of the Aldrich bill was used because the Aldrich bill had been drawn up by expert lawyers and seemed to be appropriate. It was indeed drawn up by lawyers. The Aldrich bill was created by acceptance bankers of European origin in New York City. It was a copy and in general a translation of the statutes of the Reichsbank and other European central banks.

Half a million dollars was spent one part of the propaganda organized by those same European bankers for the purpose of misleading public opinion in regard to it, and for the purpose of giving Congress the impression that there was an overwhelming popular demand for that kind of banking legislation and the kind of currency that goes with it, namely, an asset currency based on human debts and obligations instead of an honest currency based on gold and silver values. Dr. H. Parker Willis had been employed by the Wall Street bankers and propagandists and when the Aldrich measure came to naught and he obtained employment with Carter Glass to assist in drawing a banking bill for the Wilson administration, he appropriated the text of the Aldrich bill for his purpose. There is no secret about it. The text of the Federal Reserve act was tainted from the beginning.

Not all of the Democratic Members of the Sixty-third Congress voted for this great deception. Some of them remembered the teachings of Jefferson; and, through the years, there had been no criticisms of the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve banks so honest, so out-spoken, and so unsparingly as those which have been voiced here by Democrats. Again, although a number of Republicans voted for the Federal Reserve act, the wisest and most conservative members of the Republican Party would have nothing to do with it and voted against it. A few days before the bill came to a vote, Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, of Massachusetts, wrote to Senator John W. Weeks as follows:

New York City, December 17, 1913

My Dear Senator Weeks:

Throughout my public life I have supported all measures designed to take the Government out of the banking business.... This bill puts the Government into the banking business as never before in our history and makes, as I understand it, all notes Government notes when they should be bank notes.

The powers vested in the Federal Reserve Board seem to me highly dangerous, especially where there is political control of the Board. I should be sorry to hold stock in a bank subject to such domination. The bill as it stands seems to me to open the way to a vast inflation of the currency. There is no necessity of dwelling upon this point after the remarkable and most powerful argument of the senior Senator from New York. I can be content here to follow the example of the English candidate for Parliament who thought it enough "to say ditto to Mr. Burke." I will merely add that I do not like to think that any law can be passed which will make it possible to submerge the gold standard in a flood of irredeemable paper currency.

I had hoped to support this bill, but I can not vote for it as it stands, because it seems to me to contain features and to rest upon principles in the highest degree menacing to our prosperity, to stability in business, and to the general welfare of the people of the United States.

*Very sincerely yours,
Henry Cabot Lodge*

In eighteen years that have passed since Senator Lodge wrote that letter of warning all of his predictions have come true. The Government is in the banking business as never before. Against its will it has been made the backer of horsethieves and card sharps, bootleggers, smugglers, speculators, and swindlers in all parts of the world. Through the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve banks the riffraff of every country is operating on the public credit of this United States Government. Meanwhile, and on account of it, we ourselves are in the midst of the greatest depression we have ever known. Thus the menace to our prosperity, so feared by Senator Lodge, has indeed struck home. From the Atlantic to the Pacific our country has been ravaged and laid waste by the evil practices of the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve banks and the interests which control them. At no time in our history has the general welfare of the people of the United States been at a lower level or the mind of the people so filled with despair.

Recently in one of our States 60,000 dwelling houses and farms were brought under the hammer in a single day. According to the Rev. Father Charles E. Coughlin, who has lately testified before a committee of this House, 71,000 houses and farms in Oakland County, Michigan, have been sold and their erstwhile owners dispossessed. Similar occurrences have probably taken place in every county in the United States. The people who have thus been driven out are the wastage of the Federal Reserve act. They are the victims of the dishonest and unscrupulous Federal Reserve Board and Federal Reserve banks. Their children are the new slaves of the auction blocks in the revival here of the institution of human slavery.”

You can see, from this glimpse at a past congressional record, evidence for concern in the matter of the Federal Reserve System and the intent of its international investment-family owners.

All of this time we thought our government was doing business as The United States of America, the one founded in 1776 as our history books have taught us. But, alas! We, in reality, the citizens of The United States of America, are being governed as a reorganized nation, officially, and legally known, as the Corporation of the United States.

Our government in Washington D.C. is actually doing its business as a “Corporation” controlled and enslaved by a group, a conglomerate (money cartel) consisting of the richest corporate families of the earth, a group of such vast wealth and power, that no audit, no accounting of their wealth is required by any power on earth. A group so powerful that they remain invisible and unanswerable to anyone within our international community. Yet it has the power to issue all of our money!

It is to this fact, that the scriptures address a great “vengeance to comfort.”

James 5:1-4 KJV “Go to now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you. [A prophetic promise] (2) Your riches are corrupted, and your garments are moth-eaten. (3) Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. Ye have heaped treasure together [GR. to amass a reserve, a conglomerate of wealth] for the last days [GR. New Thayer's Greek-English Lexicon — of the time nearest the return of Christ from heaven and the consummation of the divine kingdom, the following scriptures are so used: ...Acts 2.17; James 5.3; 2 Timothy 3.1.] (4) Behold, the hire [GR. wages, currency] of the labourers who have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud [fiat money of no worth], crieth: and the cries of them which have reaped are entered into the ears of the Lord of sabaoth [GR. Greek transliterated Hebrew meaning Jehovah Tsaba.”]

Within one decade of the creation of our central banking system, and the control of it in the hands of the international banking cartel, they were able to plunder our total national and individual wealth of gold reserves, sending us into the Great Depression of the 1930s. Later on, they accomplished the same with our silver reserves, finally replacing the “silver certificate” with unvalued dollars against the personal assets of the nations’ citizens. Today, we are left with fiat currency and coinage...of no value, as we will prove with no uncertainty.

There was a time in our national history, when in order for the Federal Reserve Bank to issue currency, it had to provide receipts confirming its equivalent in gold and silver to back the money issued. By definition of the U.S. Constitution, with no subsequent amendment ever offered, a Dollar is, “412 1/2 grains of 9/10ths fine silver or its equivalent in gold bullion in store.” Those issuing our paper currency had to supply the gold coinage or bullion of its equal value. For every Dollar Bill issued, there had to be its “Silver Dollar” coin counterpart in the nation’s vaults.

Today we live in the reality that our national leaders allow us to continue to operate outside the parameters set forth in our constitution with regards to our money system which continue to have its effect on our personal and national economic system.

Nations with largest number of Christians:

1. Africa - Africa is now home to the largest number of Christians in the world. Latin America held that title previously. An infographic provided by the Center for the Study of Global Christianity at Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary shows that more than 631 million Christians currently reside in Africa and they make up 45 percent of the population. (Compare this with the United States with a total U.S. Christian population of 240 Million.)
  - According to CBS News, Zambia is the African nation with the highest percentage of Christian residents, with around 95.5 percent of the people living there following the religion.
  - Following not too far behind Zambia on the list of African nations with the highest percentage of Christian residents is the Republic of Seychelles, where 94.7 percent hold Christian beliefs.
  - Third is Rwanda.
2. Latin America - Latin America is, meanwhile, estimated to have 601 million Christians. Though a smaller number compared to Africa, they make up a majority of the continent at 92 percent.
3. Europe – Third on the list of the continents with the most Christians in 2018 is Europe at 571 million, making up 77 percent of the population.
4. Asia – In fourth place is Asia with 388 million Christians, though they only make up nine percent of the continent's population.
5. North America (United States and Canada) - is fifth with 285567 million Christians who make up 76 percent of the continent's population.

6. Oceania – (Australia, Fiji, Indonesia, Kiribati, Marshall Islands, Micronesia, Nauru, New Zealand, Palau, Papua New Guinea, Samoa, Solomon Islands, Tonga, Tuvalu, Vanuatu) - Lastly, Oceania has 29 million Christians, which accounts for 71 percent of the people living there.

Religions in terms of size:

1. Christianity is still the world's largest religion, according to the Pew Research Center. Christians make up 31 percent of the world's entire population and that translates to 2.3 billion people.
2. 1.8 billion people in the world are Muslims,
3. 1.1 billion people follow Hinduism.
4. Buddhism is a religion practiced by an estimated 488 million in the world, 495 million representing 9% to 10% of the world's total population. China is the country with the largest population of Buddhists, approximately 244 million or 18.2% of its total population.
5. 1.2 billion people are not affiliated with any specific religion, according to the study.
6. Jewish Population consists of only 13 Million Jews worldwide. 6.5 Million live in Israel, and 5.7 Million reside within the United States, leaving only 800,000 in other locations worldwide.

Addendum # 3

Tyre (Tyrus) A Symbol in End-Time Prophecy

© Copyright 2019 – Dr. Don G. Pickney

Zechariah 9:3-5 KJV And Tyrus<sup>1</sup> did build herself a strong hold, and heaped up silver as the dust, and fine gold as the mire of the streets. (4) Behold, the Lord will cast her out, and he will smite her power in the sea; and she shall be devoured with fire. (5) Ashkelon<sup>2</sup> shall see it, and fear; Gaza<sup>3</sup> also shall see it, and be very sorrowful, and Ekron<sup>4</sup>; for her expectation shall be ashamed; and the king shall perish from Gaza<sup>6</sup>, and Ashkelon<sup>5</sup> shall not be inhabited.

Moffat Translation - Zechariah 9:3-5 "And Tyrus did build herself a strong hold, and heaped up silver as the dust, and fine gold as the mire of the streets. Behold, the Lord will cast her out, and he will smite her power in the sea; and she shall be devoured with fire. Ashkelon shall see it, and fear; Gaza also shall see it, and be very sorrowful, and Ekron; for her expectation shall be ashamed."

Tyrus (known for its ability to attract world trade and commerce) represents an economic system of greed and dishonest gain resulting in enormous but wicked monetary gains. Verse (4) lets us know that it will be overthrown. This process began when the World Trade Center was destroyed) Ashkelon (which means "market" or "mart") represents our modern Wall Street stock markets. The markets will see the end of the current economic strength and they will become fearful. Fear always has a very crippling effect on Wall Street. Ancient Gaza was a monetary stronghold and therefore is symbolic of our Federal Reserve Bank (currently headed by Alan Greenspan). According to Zechariah's prophecy, The Federal Reserve leader will see this great economic upheaval and "whirl and writhe in pain" and "be disappointed and confounded" [Heb. for "sorrowful"]. Ekron (which represents "pride or haughtiness") lets us know that the world's expectation will be disappointed, delayed, and confounded" [Heb. for "ashamed"].

Tyrus – Hebrew: ṣōr, צור, meaning "the rock," and is a symbol of pride from economic strength. The city was renowned as a trading center for the world's merchants. Its main center was on an island. Ezekiel could find no better ancient symbol to represent the hubris and arrogance of the king(s) of Tyre than the first Adam or Satan before his rebellion, as seen in:

Ezekiel 28:1-10 KJV "The word of the LORD came again unto me, saying, (2) Son of man, say unto the prince of Tyrus, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thine heart is lifted up, and thou hast said, I am a God, I sit in the seat of God, in the midst of the seas; yet thou art a man, and not God, though thou set thine heart as the heart of God: (3) Behold, thou art wiser than Daniel; there is no secret that they can hide from thee: (4) With thy wisdom and with thine understanding thou hast gotten thee riches, and hast gotten gold and silver into thy treasures: (5) By thy great wisdom and by thy trade hast thou increased thy riches, and thine heart is lifted up because of thy riches: (6) Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thou hast set thine heart as the heart of God; (7) Behold, therefore I will bring strangers upon thee, the terrible of the nations: [better translated "terrorists of the nations"] and they shall draw their swords against the beauty of thy wisdom, and they shall defile thy brightness. (8) They shall bring thee down to the pit, and thou shalt die the deaths of them that are slain in the midst of the seas. (9) Wilt thou yet say before him that slayeth thee, I am God? but thou shalt be a man, and no God, in the hand of him that slayeth thee. (10) Thou shalt die the deaths of the uncircumcised by the hand of strangers (symbolic of Islamic extremism): for I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD."

In Isaiah 2:10-12 we read, "...*the lofty looks of man shall be humbled, and the haughtiness of men shall be bowed down, and the Lord alone shall be exalted in that day. For the day of the LORD of hosts [Jehovah Tsaba] shall be upon everyone that is proud and lofty, and upon everyone that is lifted up; and he shall be brought low...*for the glory of his majesty, when he ariseth to shake terribly the earth."

Later on, in Isaiah 6:5, Isaiah saw the glory of God, and declared, "...for mine eyes have seen the King, the Lord of Hosts [Jehovah Tsaba]."

In Isaiah 14:24-27 he again prophesies, "The Lord of hosts [Jehovah Tsaba] hath sworn saying, Surely as I have thought, so shall it come to pass; and as I have purposed, so shall it stand... This is the purpose that is purposed upon the whole earth; and this is the hand that is stretched out upon the nations. For the Lord of hosts [Jehovah Tsaba] hath purposed, and who shall disannul

it? And his hand is stretched out, and who shall turn it back?"

It is in light of these scriptures that we move into a most startling scripture in Isaiah, Chapter Twenty-Three. I must warn you, that in light of the September 11, 2001 WTC attack, this chapter proves to be quite graphic! To understand these passages, however, requires you to know some Hebrew word meanings.

In reference to these scriptures, the word, "Tyre," (or Tyrus) means "economic system," and the word, "Tarshish" means, "the epithet of a merchant." "Zidon" represent "industry." With these representations in mind, read these verses with me.

Beginning with Isaiah 23:1, "The burden of Tyre. Howl, ye ships of Tarshish, for it is laid waste, so that there is no house [building left standing], no entering in... [Verse 2] Be still, ye inhabitants of the isle [Manhattan?], thou whom the merchants, that pass over the seas have replenished [furnished]... [Verse 3] She is a mart [marketplace] of nations... [Verse 6] Howl ye inhabitants of the isle. [Verse 7] Is this your joyous city...her own feet shall carry her off [A reminder that all of those present at the World Trade Center area were required to walk north off of the island of Manhattan. We watched in horror as they filled the wide streets and bridges with masses of stunned faces and stared gazes, walking off the island.]

[Verse 8] The crowning city, whose merchants...whose traffickers [brokers] are the honourable of the earth. [Verse 9] The LORD of hosts [Jehovah Tsaba] hath purposed it, to stain the pride of all glory, and to bring into contempt all the honourable of the earth... [Verse 11] He stretched out his hand over the sea, he shook the kingdoms: the Lord hath given a commandment against the merchant city, to destroy the stronghold thereof... [Verse 13] They set up the towers thereof and he [Jehovah Tsaba] brought it to ruin. [Verse 14] Howl... for your strength is laid waste."

This picture of God's character should not offend anyone. God is a God of love, power, wisdom, righteousness, mercy, justice and judgment. You may have only seen Him as love or mercy, but He is all of these things all of the time! It is His seven-fold nature. All of His ways end in judgment. (Exodus 32:4). While God's mercy is always available, all of the time, if the wicked refuse God's mercy, judgment is certain.

The Wealth Of The Wicked Will Be Converted... Into The Hands Of God's People

This is "Good News" for the Body of Christ, and for the ministry of the Church! The latter words of Isaiah, Chapter Twenty-Three, declares, "And her merchandise [profits of trade] and her hire [wages from labor] shall become holiness to the Lord: it shall not be treasured nor laid up [hoarded away, stored up]; for her merchandise [profits of trade] shall be for them that dwell before the Lord, to eat sufficiently, and for durable clothing."

The Living Bible Translation renders it this way, Yet, the distant time will come when her business will give their profits to the Lord! They will not be hoarded but used for good food and fine clothes for the ministers of the Lord!"

The Amplified Bible states, "Her gain and her hire will be dedicated to the Lord [eventually]. It will not be treasured or stored up. For her gain will be used for those who dwell in the presence of the Lord [the ministers] that they may eat sufficiently and have durable and stately clothing [suitable for those who minister at God's altar.]"

Finally, this "judgment," this "shaking of the nations" is more graphically explained in Ezekiel's prophetic parable of the same event. Although a part of these prophecies were local, and thus fulfilled in part in ancient times, there are portions that point to being repeated on a broader, world-wide scale, at a later time. Ecclesiastes 3:15 says, "That which hath been is now, and that which is to be hath already been, and God requireth [repeats again] that which is past."

Engines (Using Sharp Cutting Instruments) Crash Into

The WTC Twin Towers

In Ezekiel, Chapter Twenty-Six and Twenty-Seven, the prophecy is given, [26:7] *“For thus saith the Lord God! Behold, I will bring upon Tyrus [economic system]... [Verse 9] ...and he shall set engines of war against thy walls, and with his axes [Hebrew: sharp cutting instruments, knives] ...and he shall break down thy towers. [Verse 12] *And they shall make a spoil of thy riches and make a prey of thy merchandise [profits of trade]. [Verse 14] Thou shalt be built no more: for I the Lord have spoken it, saith the Lord God. Thus saith the Lord God to Tyrus: shall not the nations shake at the sound of thy fall, when the wounded cry; when the slaughter is made in the midst of thee? Then the princes of the sea shall come down from their high places...and shall clothe themselves with trembling... [Verse 17] *And they shall take up a lamentation for thee, and say to thee, How art thou destroyed, that the WTC housed 63 nations (of the seas)] *the renowned city, which wast strong in the sea, she and her inhabitants... [Verse 18] Now shall the nations tremble in the day of thy fall; yea, the isles that are in the sea shall be troubled [terrorized] at thy departure... [Verse 20] *When I bring thee down... I shall set glory in the land of the living [the Body of Christ who have been given eternal life will see God’s glory come to them!].”**

In Ezekiel, Chapter Twenty-Seven, beginning with the first verse, the Prophet continues, *“The word of the Lord came again unto me, saying... [Verse 3] Say unto Tyrus, O thou that art situate at the entry of the sea, which are a merchant of the people for many isles. Thus saith the Lord God: O Tyrus, thou has said, I am of perfect beauty [Verse 9] *All the ships of the sea, with their mariners were in thee to occupy thy merchandise... [Verse 12] *All kinds of riches: with silver, iron, tin, and lead, they traded thy fairs... [Verse 13] They traded in thy fairs with horses and horsemen... [Verse 15] Many isles were the merchandise of thin hand: they brought thee for a present horns of ivory and ebony... [Verse 16] They occupied in thy fairs with emeralds, purple, and broided work, and fine linens, and coral, and agate... [Verse 17] They traded in thy market wheat...and honey, and oil, and balm... [Verse 18] *in the multitude of the wares of thy making, for the multitude of all riches; in the wines of Helbon, and white wool... [Verse 20] in precious clothes for chariots... [Verse 21] in these were they thy merchants... [Verse 22] They occupied in thy fairs with chief of all spices, and with all precious stones, and gold... [Verse 24] these were thy merchants in all sorts of things... [Verse 27] and in all thy company which is in the midst of *thee, shall fall into the midst of the seas in the day of thy ruin. The suburbs shall shake at the sound of the cry of thy pilots... [Verse 30] And shall cause their voice to be heard against thee, and shall cry bitterly, and dust shall be cast upon their heads, and they shall wallow themselves in the ashes... [Verse 31] They shall weep for thee with bitterness of heart and bitter wailing. [Verse 32] And in their wailing they shall take up a lamentation for thee and lament over thee saying... [Verse 33] thou didst enrich the kings of the earth with the multitude of thy riches and thy merchandise... [Verse 34] thy merchandise and all thy company in the midst of thee shall fall. [Verse 35] All the inhabitants of the isles shall be astonished at thee, and their kings shall be sore afraid [the horrible international fear of terrorism took root throughout the international community] *they shall be troubled in their countenance."

Matthew Henry

- Born: 18 October 1662, Flintshire, Wales
- Died: 22 June 1714 (aged 51), Cheshire, England
Minister

“Matthew Henry was a nonconformist minister and author, born in Wales but spending much of his life in England. One of the most famous Ministers of the Gospel of his century, he is best known for the six-volume biblical commentary Exposition of the Old and New Testaments.”

In May 2000, While in prayer and study, God revealed to me a prophetic assignment that would rest upon me from then until the end of this age, the coming of the Lord Jesus, and the rapture of the Church.

Drawing me to various sequences of scripture, a prophetic picture unfolded within symbolic references found in the biblical books of Isaiah and Ezekiel, that brought me to several conclusions:

1. There would be a destruction of the World Trade Center Organization, including its twin towers on the Isle of Manhattan;
2. It would be the end of this organization as a world influence in the trade among all nations;
3. God would use terrorists to accomplish this prophecy;
4. This event would usher in the beginning of Isaiah’s biblical prophecy of The Day of Jehovah Tsaba.

I preached my revelation of this publicly from May 2000 until its occurrence September 11, 2001 when the biblical prophecy was fulfilled. In this document, we follow Matthew Henry’s Commentary of these events. The actual scriptures will not be quoted for sake of space, only the comments of Matthew Henry:

Isaiah 23:1-14

“Tyre was the mart of the nations. She was noted for mirth and diversions, and this maker her loath to consider the warnings God gave by his servants. Her merchants were princes, and lived like princes. Tyre being laid waste, the merchants should flee for their own safety, but those that are uneasy in one place, will be so in another, for when God’s judgments pursue sinners, they will overtake them. Whence shall all this trouble come? It is a prophesied destruction from the Almighty. God-designed to convince wicked, covetous and ungodly men of the vanity and uncertainty of all earthly glory. Let the ruin of Tyre be for God’s warning of things to come in its time in all places and persons to take heed of pride, for he who exalts himself shall be abased. God will do it, who has all power in His hands, but, for Tyre, the Chaldeans shall be the instruments.”

Isaiah 23:15-18, Henry states, “The desolations of Tyre were God’s judgments. The covetousness of worldly wealth the expense of plundering others is spiritual idolatry. This directs those that have wealth, to us it in the service of God.

When we abide with God in our worldly things, when we do all in our power to further the gospel, then our merchandise and income are holiness to the Lord, if we look to His glory. Christians should carry on business as God’s servants, and use riches as His stewards.”

Concerning Ezekiel 26:9, Henry writes, “God often blasts the projects of those who raise themselves on the ruin of others. The maxims most current in the trading world, are directly opposed to the laws of God. He will show Himself against the evil, money-loving, selfish traders, whose hearts, like those of Tyre, are hardened by riches, and in getting, keeping, and spending which, men provoke that God Whose wrath turns joyous cities into ruinous heaps in judgment.

In reference to Ezekiel 27:1-25, Henry continues, “Let none reckon themselves beautified, any further than they are sanctified. The account of the trade of Tyre intimates that God’s eye is upon men when employed in worldly business. Not only when at church, praying and hearing, but when in markets and fairs, buying and selling. God makes on country abound in a commodity, and another in another, to the comfort and ornament of human life. See what a blessing trade and abundance of things are made valuable, yet god allows us to use them for His glory. But in the hearts of evil men, when riches increase, they set their hearts upon them instead of upon God, and forget the Lord, who gives power to get wealth.”

Isaiah 60:1-8, Henry concludes, “As far as we have knowledge of God in us, and favor of God towards us, our light is come. We meet with nothing in the history of the Jews which may be deemed a fulfillment of the prophecies of this chapter; we must conclude it relates principally to future events within the Church.”

Isaiah 62:1-13, Henry comments, “God assures His Church of his unfailing love under all trials and difficulties. The Church shall be called by a new name, a pleasant name, such as was never called by before.” Verses 6-9, “See God’s mercy in giving plenty, and peace to enjoy it.”

John Wesley

Theologian

- Born Jun 28, 1703
- Died Mar 02, 1791 (age 87)

“John Wesley was an English cleric, theologian and evangelist who was a founder of Methodism. Educated at Charterhouse School and Christ Church, Oxford, Wesley was elected a fellow of Lincoln College, Oxford in 1726 and ordained as an Anglican priest two years later. He led the "Holy Club", a society formed for the purpose of study and the pursuit of a devout Christian life. He came to America where he was unsuccessful at Savannah in the Georgia Colony, and two years later Wesley returned to London. On 24 May, 1738 he experienced what has come to be called his evangelical conversion, when he felt his "heart strangely warmed". He subsequently formed his own ministry, eventually founding the Methodist Movement, known today as the Methodist Church.”

Isaiah 60:16 – “Thou shalt also suck the milk of the Gentiles, and shalt suck the breast of kings:

and thou shalt know that I the LORD am thy Savior and thy Redeemer, the mighty One of Jacob. (17) For brass I will bring gold, and for iron I will bring silver, and for wood brass, and for stones iron: I will also make thy officers peace, and thine exactors righteousness.”

“Shalt suck - That the church shall draw, or receive the wealth of nations, and the riches, and power of kings, and whatever is most excellent, and that it shall come freely, and affectionately, as milk flows from the breast of the mother.”
